

Giant Oil Gusher Sands Up After Rampage

OUTPUT OF NEW WELL IS 7000 BARRELS BELIEF

Experts See Producer One of Largest in Orange County's Fields

The big gusher brought in by the Standard Oil Company Saturday night on its Bolsa Chica lease near Huntington Beach has a production capacity of between 6000 and 7000 barrels of oil daily.

That was the opinion expressed today in the new oil field by men of wide experience in oil drilling.

Heavy gas pressure in the well yesterday afternoon blew out a nipple in the side of the pipe, and gas and oil rushed through the opening with a roar that could be heard in the city of Huntington Beach, two miles distant. The roar was heard more distinctly in the city last night than during the afternoon. The well sanded up at 9:30 this morning.

Thousands of feet of natural gas escaped before the well sanded up. So far as is known, there is no intention, at this time, of making preparations for conserving the gas from the well. It is the first well in the field that has given evidence of a tremendous gas pressure, and it is believed no effort will be made to commercialize the product unless more wells, carrying large quantities of the fuel, are uncovered.

The pressure in the well has kept up so long that oil men today are still of the opinion that it will prove to be among the best producers in the oil fields of Orange County—and there are many big producers in the northern Orange county fields. The well is said to be the second largest in Southern California. As it has been capped ever since it was brought in, it has not been thoroughly tested.

It became known here today that the Standard Oil company has acquired leases covering several hundred acres of land along the coast city limits of Newport Beach. It is understood that the company will start drilling operations soon, near Newport Beach.

The company has a lease on the Banning ranch, belonging to the Townsend Land company, which comprises 558 acres. The coast boundary of the ranch follows the line of the bluffs on the ocean front.

Officials, fearing danger from fire, today placed guards around the Bolsa Chica well, keeping visitors at a distance of from 200 or 300 yards. Two 6-inch pipes lead from the well into the pump hole.

Oil spray from the well was carried a distance of a mile, last night. Between 200 and 300 men, with teams, were at work today, enlarging the pump hole.

R. W. Edens, an experienced oil operator, at the Huntington Beach field today told a Register representative that he believed the Standard's Bolsa Chica well has a production capacity of 7000 barrels every 24 hours.

JUDGE LANDIS PLANS TO HOLD TWO PLACES

CHICAGO, Nov. 17.—Achievement, not words, will be the platform of Federal Judge K. M. Landis, baseball's newest ruler.

Landis, discussing plans for baseball's future, said Chicago was to be the scene for baseball pilgrims. He will make his headquarters here and squabbles which may arise will be brought to Chicago for him to decide.

"While I was making my decision as to whether I would accept the baseball offer, I came to me and said 'by all means take it. Leave the bench. You have earned it,'" Landis said.

"There seems to be a great concern in some minds about my ability to handle both jobs. They are not afraid I won't do my work. They are afraid I will do my work."

RACE ENTRIES CLOSE
NEW YORK, Nov. 17.—Entries for the Pulitzer trophy airplane race at Mineola, N. Y., on Thanksgiving Day have closed, it was announced by the contest committee of the Aero Club of America, under whose auspices the race will be held.

SCARF KNITTED FOR WILSON BRINGS HIM TO HER LITTLE HOME

The other day President and Mrs. Wilson got into the White House automobile and told the driver to take them to 5066 Conduit Road, an out-of-the-way street on the outskirts of Washington. The chief executive was carrying a big box of candy. The president and Mrs. Wilson got out at the little frame house and gave the candy to Mrs. William H. Green, whose hands had knitted the scarf the president had around his neck.

HARDING PLANS VERA CRUZ STOP

WITH PRESIDENT - ELECT HARDING, ENROUTE TO NEW ORLEANS, Nov. 17.—The Harding special carrying the president-elect and his party left Brownsville at 10 o'clock this morning for New Orleans to embark for a ten-day cruise to the Panama canal zone.

A few rear platform speeches will be made, although Senator Harding is holding the number to rock bottom so as to get the most relaxation possible. Arriving at New Orleans tomorrow, Harding goes to the chamber of commerce for a luncheon speech and overflow talk later.

Plans for stopping off at Vera Cruz or some other Mexican port on the way back from Panama were considered by Harding today as the result of an invitation extended by the Mexican government and its president-elect, General Alvaro Obregon. Senator Harding indicated he would like to visit Mexico if steamship movements could be arranged. The steamer on which he returns from Panama does not touch at Mexican ports regularly and a special stop would have to be arranged. There was no intimation as to whether Harding would be able to accept the invitation.

ANOTHER STEAMER IS PREY TO COAST GALE

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 17.—A second coastwise steamer today was reported as having fallen a victim to the gale blowing off the California and Oregon coast. The steamship G. C. Lindauer was reported ashore off Albion, Mendocino county. It was feared the vessel would be a total loss. Tugs were rushed to its aid this afternoon. The crew has abandoned the ship.

5 PERISH, 11 NEAR DEATH IN MINE FIRE

EARLINGTON, Ky., Nov. 17.—Five of sixteen men trapped by fire in the Arnold mine near here were taken out dead this morning.

They were victims of suffocation. The dead: Roy Carnes, 42; Hugh Perkins, 42; Jack Bond, 44; and Alex James and George Egan, negroes.

The other eleven men were rescued and are in a serious condition. The fire was discovered in the mine last Tuesday.

COLIMA EASY WINNER OVER EGAN AT VERNON

LOS ANGELES, Nov. 17.—Bert Colima won all the way from Joe Egan of Boston here last night in a main event that was a disappointment. Egan's pet stunt was to wrap one arm around Bert's neck and flail away with the free mitt. Colima took every round. Few clean blows were landed.

Jimmy Brenton won from Eric Goetzman in the semi-windup. Bert Meyers and George Lavigne danced a draw. Fred Young easily beat Sailor Ackerman. Sammy Good took a decision over Leo Honck. Frankie Gomez whipped Eddie Lancaster.

COUPLE FACING MURDER CHARGE

PHOENIX, Ariz., Nov. 17.—Charges of murder will probably be filed against Mr. and Mrs. Victor Check here late today, it was announced at the office of the district attorney where the testimony offered at the inquest, over the body of the aged father, Thomas Check, who died as the result of blows supposed to have been received at the hands of his son and daughter-in-law, was being closely studied.

The two were re-arrested last night and held without bail after a coroner's jury found the aged man had died as a result of "cruel and inhuman treatment" at the hands of the son and his wife.

The older Check, whose fortune is said to exceed $500,000, was found dead last Saturday evening. His body was covered with bruises. At the inquest, neighbors testified he had been beaten until he begged for mercy and that they were awakened at night by his outcries.

The deceased formerly lived in Orangefield, N. J., and later in Topeka, Kas. He had recently moved here with his family.

BLAMES FARMERS FOR CATTLE PRICE SLUMP

CHICAGO, Nov. 17.—The farmer is to blame again. This time he is responsible for the slump in cattle prices on the Chicago exchange, according to experts making a study of the causes for the drop of the last few days.

Half fed, inferior grade cattle being rushed to the Chicago stock yards from all parts of the country by panic stricken farmers is causing demoralization of the cattle market, according to Albert Baker, head of the United States bureau of markets, here today. Baker appealed to farmers to stem the tide.

"Farmers are cutting their own throats by sending underweight cattle to slaughter," Baker said today. "It stands to reason that well-fed cattle will bring better prices than the inferior grade now being sold. Feed is much cheaper and there is no reason why farmers should not hold their stock until it is more mature."

Demoralization of the cattle market has had little effect on the hog market, according to Baker. He expects declines in hogs, but predicted the downward movement would be gradual.

WOMAN, CHILD DROWNED

CALEXICO, Cal., Nov. 17.—A woman and a small girl were drowned when a motor truck filled with Mexicans plunged over an embankment into the Colorado river near the border town of La Bomba, according to messages received here today.

NEGRO IS ELECTED
TACOMA, Wash., Nov. 17.—J. H. Ryan, elected to the state legislature from Tacoma district, will be the first negro to sit in that body.

Mr. Ryan is a leader of his race and is publisher of a weekly paper devoted largely to the negro's interests. He was elected on the Farmer-Labor ticket and defeated Mrs. Frances Haskell, Republican, the only woman member of the legislature.

Burlington Mail Train Robbery Greatest in History of Country

OMAHA, Neb., Nov. 17.—Federal officials here announced today that the robbers who looted a storage mail car on the Burlington road Saturday at Council Bluffs escaped with plunder amounting to $3,500,000. Practically all the loot was in bonds and negotiable paper. Ten registered mail sacks were taken, all of which came from banks on the Pacific coast.

That the loss in the robbery of a Burlington mail train at Council Bluffs Saturday is the greatest in the history of crime in this country was the intimation of a federal officer working on the case today, when he intimated that newspaper guesses of the loss thus far were too conservative.

He was referring to an estimate of $3,500,000 made by a Council Bluffs newspaper.

It is officially known now that one of the pouches contained $750,000 in bonds and unofficially that another held $800,000, also in bonds.

There were ten pouches altogether, and if this ratio were upheld the loss would exceed $7,000,000.

Merle Phillips, the 20-year-old boy who confessed to his share in the robbery, continued to baffle authorities today, who questioned him in an effort to learn who his confederates were.

The boy has been under the "third degree" for over 48 hours.

S. F. OFFICERS IN DARK AS TO AMOUNT STOLEN
SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 17.—Postal Inspector S. H. Morse, discussing Omaha reports that the loot in the train robbery of Saturday night may run into the millions, said today he still was without information indicating the losses.

Morse declared that he had not received any reports from local banks of heavy bond shipments which might have been on the train and that the only word he had had from Omaha was that the loss was indefinite.

OIL BARGE ASHORE AFTER NIGHT ADRIFT

PROVINCETOWN, Mass., Nov. 17.—Navy oil barge No. 13, which broke away from the tug Penacook during a gale last night, came ashore at Gurnet Beach, near Plymouth, today.

Although it had been reported that there were five men aboard when the barge broke loose, no men were found by coast guards who examined the craft. Naval officers at Plymouth announced that the report that five men were aboard was erroneous and no lives had been lost.

CICOTTE MAY ESCAPE THROUGH CONFESSION

CHICAGO, Nov. 17.—Immunity will be given Eddie Cicotte, White Sox pitcher, who confessed he accepted $10,000 to play "crooked baseball" against the Cincinnati Reds in the 1919 world series, it was reported here today. Cicotte's confession implicated seven other White Sox players, under indictment.

Cicotte gave ball through his lawyer, who told assistants at the state attorney's office that Cicotte would stand by his confession.

LOOT MAY TOTAL $7,000,000

BANDITS GET HUGE SUM IN BONDS

NEW YORK, Nov. 17.—The personal property of Olive Thomas, film star, who died from poisoning in Paris, will be sold at public auction here Monday.

The articles, which are now on exhibition, include jewelry, furs, automobiles and wearing apparel. Among the jewelry is a bracelet containing 204 diamonds and three sapphires, a necklace with 102 diamonds and a necklace of 300 pearls.

Property of Olive Thomas To Be Sold Under Hammer

NEW YORK, Nov. 17.—The personal property of Olive Thomas, film star, who died from poisoning in Paris, will be sold at public auction here Monday.

The articles, which are now on exhibition, include jewelry, furs, automobiles and wearing apparel. Among the jewelry is a bracelet containing 204 diamonds and three sapphires, a necklace with 102 diamonds and a necklace of 300 pearls.

"39" BULLETINS

GENEVA, Nov. 17.—Admission of Germany to the league of nations was urged today at the meeting of the assembly. Argentine's representative, Lord Robert Cecil, British delegate from South Africa, pleaded Germany's cause without mentioning the country by name. They declared if admission is not offered every nation, there may be another league formed. Cecil urged immediate action to restore order in Armenia and save the population.

CENTRE COLLEGE 11 MAY PLAY ON COAST

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 17.—Efforts to bring the Centre College football team to the coast for a post-season game will be made by Lieutenant Commander J. J. Kaveney, an athletic officer of the Pacific fleet.

The fleet is possessed of a football team numbering several old-time Annapolis stars, which has cleaned up everything it went after on the coast. Full schedules, however, have prevented the team meeting the stronger coast college teams.

Kaveney announced he has $5,000 to finance a game with Centre.

CHARGE COUNTERFEIT TICKETS BEING SOLD

BERKELEY, Cal., Nov. 17.—Warning that counterfeit tickets to the California-Stanford game here Saturday have been "placed on the market" and are being sold at exorbitant figures, was issued today by Lute Nichols, graduate manager of the University of California.

"No one can possess as many tickets as some of the scalpers seem to have, on account of our method of selling them," Nichols said.

Any large block of tickets offered for sale, he declared, must be counterfeit.

DARTMOUTH READY FOR TRIP TO COAST

HANOVER, N. H., Nov. 17.—Twenty-one Dartmouth football players with managers and coaches, are to leave Boston Saturday for Seattle where they are to play Washington Nov. 27.

Coach Spears' lineup will depend upon the condition in which the regulars come out of the Brown game.

The squad will stop in Chicago and St. Paul and is expected to arrive in Seattle Wednesday night.

AGED WOMAN, LONELY, TAKES DEATH POTION

LOS ANGELES, Nov. 17.—A romantic soul that craved love and shivered and bent with 62 years. Mrs. Elissa Barnes, widow of a Civil War veteran, is dead today, a suicide.

One wrinkled hand clutched a bottle that had contained poison and in the other was a note in handwriting cramped with age.

It read: "Frank, I love you. Goodbye." Frank Lamasky, an inmate of the soldier's home here, was Mrs. Barnes' only friend.

FREEDOM FOR MOONEY IS LOOMING

Dismissal of Bomb Plot Case Possible If New Trial Ordered, Report

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 17.—District Attorney Brady, of San Francisco, declared today that if the courts should order a new trial for Thomas Mooney, now serving a life sentence as a result of the Preparedness Parade bomb explosion here in 1916, he probably would move that the case be dismissed and Mooney be freed.

Brady made the statement in answer to a letter he received early today from Mooney, appealing for a new trial.

WILL HEAR IRISH WITNESSES TOMORROW
WASHINGTON, Nov. 17.—First-hand testimony concerning conditions in Ireland will be given before the American commission on Ireland tomorrow. Witnesses scheduled to appear when the hearings started today asked an opportunity to rest after their long trip from Ireland.

WOMAN HURT, PARENTS DIE IN AUTO CRASH

DENVER, Colo., Nov. 17.—Mrs. M. S. Mayer, of Denver, today, was recovering from injuries received in an automobile wreck yesterday in which her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Isaac Baer, were killed.

Their automobile was struck by a pioneer resident of Colorado. With his family he was enroute to California to spend the winter when the accident occurred.

BANDITS CARRY SAFE AWAY IN AUTO TRUCK

LOS ANGELES, Nov. 17.—Deputy sheriffs and police today were searching for three men who drove away about midnight from the office of the United Supply company at Burbank with a safe, weighing about 400 pounds and said to have contained a considerable sum in negotiable securities. A man and woman who saw them escape reported they were headed toward Los Angeles.

HAZING UNDER BAN AT NAVAL ACADEMY

WASHINGTON, Nov. 17.—Rear Admiral Scales, commandant of the U. S. naval academy at Annapolis, has the hazing situation there in hand, Secretary of the Navy Daniels said today.

"Admiral Scales is as determined to prevent hazing at Annapolis as I am," Daniels said, adding that he is trusting the authorities at the school to break up the practice.

FACES JURY SECOND TIME FOR MURDER

SAN LUIS OBISPO, Cal., Nov. 17.—The second trial of Jacob R. Marsh, charged with the murder of his son-in-law, Louis Terra, last July, was in progress here today. Marsh was entered the same plea as made in the first trial, self defense.

FOLLOWERS OF KING CONSTANTINE FIRE ON ELECTION CROWD

ATHENS, Nov. 17.—Rioting broke out today in front of the foreign office as a result of the national elections.

Many persons, including a number of children, were reported killed when the space between the office was swept with machine gun fire. Adherents of King Constantine were blamed for the firing.

Regent Condouriotis is said to have refused the resignation of Premier Venizelos until the votes from the army have been compiled.

It is believed no matter what the result, Venizelos will insist on withdrawing, feeling that the small majority still possible is not a sufficient endorsement.

Venizelos, before submitting his resignation, telegraphed the Greek commander in Asia Minor, ordering him to continue operations until further orders were received.

The premier was quoted as saying, "I've done my part for the Greek people and they have condemned my policy. I have retired."

"I have been accused of being a tyrant and I am giving my place to others who will not be tyrants," he said.

BRITISH, FRENCH MAY TAKE HAND IN NAMING RULER.
PARIS, Nov. 17.—While newspapers and public men here today were proclaiming that the Allies never would permit King Constantine to return to the throne of Greece, it was privately admitted that it was extremely unlikely Britain and France would be able to block such a move.

The people of Britain and France would not look with favor on a military enterprise to prevent the Greeks from putting Constantine back in power. It was considered possible the French, in an extreme case, might send such an expedition to Greece. Through its influence over the National Bank of Greece, which contains the nation's finances, the Allies could virtually cut off funds from Constantine, but then they would have to reckon with a possible uprising of the Greek people, enraged at foreign interference with their choice of a monarch.

Paris appeared stupefied at the unexpected result of the Greek elections. Venizelos will not withdraw his resignation, although reports from additional provinces today showed he was not hopelessly beaten in the national elections. Venizelos carried Crete, his home, and Smyrna and Thrace were reported to have given him majorities. These returns, the dispatches said, might modify the entire situation.

The southeast section of the city reported 449 memberships secured on Monday. The team in that section is captained by Mrs. A. G. Flagg, Mrs. E. V. S. Pomeroy and Mrs. Ray Chandler.

The northeast section, under the leadership of Mrs. C. A. Riggs and Mrs. J. B. Roberts, reported a total of 179 new members for the Red Cross.

Mrs. Earl L. Morris and Miss Pauline Parsons, who are in charge of the canvassing in the southeast district of the city, secured 108 new members during the first day of the drive, according to their report to headquarters.

Canvassing in every district is still in progress and will continue until late Saturday evening. Mrs. Susie Rutherford, acting as chairman of the Red Cross campaign committee, is in charge of the chapter drive. The member of the city committee at headquarters today is Mrs. J. N. Anderson.

Booths will be constructed along Fourth street Friday, from which memberships in the Red Cross will be solicited. Mrs. Kenneth Scovel will be in charge of the work.

BURGLARIES NET $2000
LOS ANGELES, Nov. 17.—Burglars continued their operations in Hollywood, gathering in more than $2,000 worth of loot in three early morning raids. Those whose residences were invaded were W. H. Pugh, Mrs. Alice Leisure and Albert Alcovitch.

TOTALS FOR RED CROSS GROWING
With 1,096 new memberships in Santa Ana alone, reported as being secured during the first day of the Red Cross Roll Call Drive, indications point towards an almost total eclipse of last year's record of 4,508 for the entire district.

The reports for the first day, which were compiled last night, show the results of the canvass of the business district on the north side of Fourth street only, to almost equal the total of last year's drive, during the whole week, in the business section. The canvass, made by teams of the Knights of Columbus, the Elks and the Chamber of Commerce, reported 520 new memberships secured, of which the Elks obtained 276. Last year the total for the business section during the week was only 693 memberships. The report from the south side of Fourth street in the business section and the southwest section of the residence district, have not been received.

OBREGON FACES BIG PROBLEM IN BANKS

MEXICO CITY, Nov. 17.—Of all the problems which will confront President-elect Obregon when he assumes the leadership of the Mexican nation next December, none will demand more urgent solution than the rehabilitation of the country's banking system.

Thus far Provisional President De La Huerta has left the question almost untouched, evidently believing the problem to be so immense that a short-term "substitute" government could not tackle it.

De la Huerta, however, has divided the question into two salient angles: First, a banking law must be enacted, establishing rules for the guidance of both native and foreign banks; second, a national bank of issue must be founded.

Around both features of the issue revolves the necessity of providing some form of reimbursement for the banks which suffered enormous losses during the revolution. Little progress has been made toward the drafting of a banking law. Several tentative projects have been drawn up, but none of them has passed beyond the embryonic stage and it is not likely any definite action will be taken until after Obregon's installation.

As for the establishment of a national bank, the treasury department has at least prepared a project on the subject, which may be presented to congress at an early date. In this connection it is recognized first that the institution must be a bank of emission. Mexico today is one of the few countries of the world—perhaps the only one—which is on so thoroughly a gold basis that not a single piece of paper is in circulation. One issue of paper after another, during the revolutionary period, has either depreciated or been repudiated to such an extent that the public will have nothing to do with any money except that made of metal.

By establishing a national bank of issue, the government hopes to restore public confidence and return paper money to circulation. This is one of the main features of the plan for the new bank. This institution, according to the present proposal, is to be known as "The Bank of the Mexican Republic," and is to be the sole bank of issue during a period of fifty years. The capital of the bank will be 100,000,000 pesos, Mexican currency, to consist of a million shares of 100 pesos each, half of which is to be subscribed by the government and the other half by individuals, local or foreign, and by other banks. The project permits the institution to issue notes ranging in denomination from five to one thousand pesos, the total of these notes not to be more than 100 per cent in excess of the bank's gold reserve more than three times the capital. The bank may establish branches throughout the republic—in this way the government hopes to revive the national financial structure.

How the Mexican people will receive a new issue of paper money, when the bank is founded, will form one of the surest and most severe tests of the Obregon administration.

What happened to the banks in Mexico under Carranza, creating the present situation, is well described by Carranza's own finance secretary, Luis Chif, in 1916, "first demanded of the banks that they bring their reserves to a par with their circulation, later placed them in liquidation and finally confiscated their gold and silver, the banks as a result ceasing to function."

Handley's Death ACCIDENTAL, CLAIM

STOCKTON, Cal., Nov. 17.—Loren A. Handley, former prohibition director of California, who was killed in an automobile accident near Stockton several weeks ago, met his death accidentally and was not murdered, according to District Attorney Edward Van Vranken, of San Joaquin county.

The investigation made by him revealed, Van Vranken said, that Handley met his death 500 feet across the San Joaquin county line, in Sacramento county, and that if there were court actions growing out of the case they would have to be in the Sacramento county courts. It was believed, previous to this investigation, that Handley was killed in San Joaquin county.

Following Handley's death, which seemed to precipitate the present liquor investigation, there were many rumors and reports that Handley was a victim of foul play and not of accident.

LOS ANGELES—Much interest was manifested here in the announcement of the Cincinnati Aircraft corporation of Cincinnati that the concern may build an extensive plant here for the manufacture of airplanes. Word of the corporation's plans was contained in dispatches from the eastern city. Representatives of the company will visit Los Angeles shortly to inspect facilities here, it was stated.

LOVE OF YOUTH FOR LUPUE DIES AS JAIL LIFE BECOMES BORE

LOS ANGELES, Nov. 17.—Nine days in durance vile have somewhat altered the views of Henry L. Willets, 19, on jails and women.

He is the son of a millionaire Birdsboro shoe manufacturer.

"Jails are all right for tough guys, but not for a gentleman's son," remarked Henry today as he breathed the outdoor air.

The youth is accused of having stolen an automobile so he could take Mrs. Lupie Jackson, a pretty 22-year-old widow, "for a ride."

Henry's father came thousands of miles to his rescue, offering to furnish bail for his release if he ceased his attentions to the young woman. Henry, however, is reported to have declared "I'll rot in a dungeon forever rather than give up Lupie."

"All right, then, rot," was the rejoinder of the older Willets, or words to that effect.

For nine days Henry pondered in a cell. Finally he sent for his father's lawyer.

"You know, I think papa was right," Henry is said to have told him.

The bond was furnished for his freedom. It is reported he and Lupie have decided to "call it all off."

HARBOR COMMISSION SEES BITTER POINT

Although the dam at Bitter Point, near Newport Beach, is not yet completed, the Santa Ana river no longer empties into Newport harbor. This fact was definitely ascertained by members of the Harbor commission as a result of a tour of investigation which took up the time of the morning session of the meeting of the commission at Newport today.

A business session was scheduled for this afternoon. At that time the progress of the work on the harbor was to be reported upon.

According to members of the commission who made the tour of inspection this morning, the work is progressing very favorably. They were apparently well pleased with the progress on the dam at Bitter Point.

PARROT TELLS OF NEW JAIL INMATES

LOS ANGELES, Nov. 17.—Although a parrot is popularly supposed to possess neither instinct nor brain, the matrons at the county jail are at all times ready to take issue with anyone who voices such a conviction. And in proof of their contention that Polly is blessed with both they point triumphantly to a specimen now in the jail.

The bird is said by Mrs. Maybelle Roe and Mrs. Julia Deane, who are now awaiting trial for the murder of McCulloch Graydon of Venice, to be a veritable prophet. Not once during the period they have been in custody, they say, has the parrot failed to chronicle the arrival of a new female prisoner at least a day ahead.

Even the matrons declare that when Polly begins her quaint antics, they immediately prepare for another prisoner. Inmates and matrons alike steadfastly maintain the bird surpasses herself before the arrival of Mrs. Peete. And now Mrs. Peete herself is a true believer in Polly's prognostications.

When expecting an addition to her official family, the parrot without warning goes into a frenzy, declares these people. She croaks mournfully, beats her wings against the wires of her cage and squawks unceasingly. At these times she will not touch food, water, nor the lump of sugar which is kept constantly within reach of her bill. But at the sight of the new prisoner she again becomes normal, and remains so until expecting the next.

AD RESOLUTION IS PASSED BY KIWANIS

The Kiwanis club went on record today as favoring at least as liberal provision, in the proposed new city charter, for community advertising funds, as the state law provision under which the city now operates.

Under the state law, the trustees may levy a special tax of 15 cents on the $100 for advertising purposes. The new charter, as it now stands tentatively framed, limits the advertising fund levy to 5 cents on the $100.

The resolution adopted by the Kiwanis club says: "We favor at least as liberal a limit for the advertising fund tax under the charter as under the state law."

Paul Wright was the speaker today, and his subject was the Red Cross. But before going into his subject Mr. Wright spoke in support of the resolution already passed. He said he had made many trips to the East within the past few years, both by railway train and by automobile, and he had found that Santa Ana is the only town of any consequence in Southern California of which people know little or have never heard. He said that on his very recent trip home from the Middle West by automobile, he found himself almost every night in the company in camp, of from 30 to 40 people en route to California. "And my best recollection," he said, "is that I didn't meet a person on the trip who had ever heard of Santa Ana."

Mr. Wright then got into his subject and paid a glowing tribute to the Red Cross, and cited many instances of the beauty and beneficence of its work that had come under his observation in France.

The Kiwanis Club reported that its members had secured, in a partial canvass of the territory assigned them 248 memberships for the Red Cross; and immediately dollars began to rain down on the secretary from all parts of the house, although most of those present were already wearing Red Cross buttons.

Kiwanian F. A. Snyder presided at today's meeting and gave the attendance prize, which went to Neal Beisel.

A large audience is expected at the First Congregational church this evening to hear Mrs. Susan M. Dorsey, superintendent of schools of the city of Los Angeles, in a discussion of "How a Teachers' League Can Help the Schools." The lecture will begin at 7:45 o'clock.

Mrs. Dorsey, who has a wide reputation as a speaker, will discuss many topics of supreme importance to those who are interested in educational progress.

The program is being given under the auspices of the Santa Ana City Teachers' league, and will include several numbers by the Girls' Glee club of the high school.

CALIFORNIA 11 AND U. S. C. MAY CLASH

BERKELEY, Cal., Nov. 17.—"Nothing will give me greater pleasure than letting California play U. S. C. for the right to represent the west at Pasadena New Years day," was the comment of Andy Smith, University of California coach, today in discussing the selection of the western team for the Pasadena classic.

He had in mind suggestions that U. S. C. at present stands as the only team on the coast with a record which might compare with California's, at least on paper.

"If we can't beat that team we have no right to represent the west," Smith added.

Smith declared that California tried for two months to get a game with U. S. C. and that no date could be arranged.

"They hung out for November 13, which was a week before our Stanford game and was reserved for rest, or for Thanksgiving day," he said.

Smith believed it would be "only fair for U. S. C. to come to Berkeley for the game, but added he wouldn't quibble about the place.

City and County

The casting committee of the Community Players organization met last night and decided tentatively upon some of those who will take the principal parts in "The Fortune Hunter," which is to be produced by the new organization sometime in January at the new high school auditorium. The casting committee is composed of Miss Verna Peterson, Mrs. Albert Zaiser, Miss Mary Harris and Joseph Jackson.

A lecture on scientific salesmanship and business efficiency by E. S. Parker, instructor in salesmanship and advertising in Manual Arts high school in Los Angeles, will be delivered at the council chamber in the city hall here, Tuesday evening, November 23, at 7:30 o'clock, under the auspices of the Merchants and Manufacturers' association. Parker was formerly an agency supervisor for a large insurance company, it is said, and trained men in sales work.

A solution of the advertising fund question is expected to be reached at a meeting of the Santa Ana Realty Board at the city hall tonight at 7:30. Customary business is expected to form a large part of the program. An invitation to the entire Santa Ana Realty Board to attend a meeting of the State Realty Board will also be considered at the meeting tonight.

With a view of making improvements in the local schools in relation to the work among children of foreign parents, a committee, selected by the Parent-Teachers' association of the Junior High school, will motor to Los Angeles tomorrow where it will conduct an investigation of schools in the foreign district of that city. The committee is composed of Henry D. Nelson, principal of the Junior High school; Mrs. Earl Morris, Mrs. L. R. Henderson, Mrs. G. V. Linsenbard and Mr. and Mrs. Leo V. Meyer. The committee will investigate particularly the Parental school on Santa Fe street in Los Angeles, and the Amelia school. In these two schools, it is said, over one thousand children of poor parents are taken care of during the day while their mothers are at work. The big feature of both schools is the "Penny Kitchen," where the little ones are served hot soup, and other sustaining food, for the sum of a penny a meal.

POOR GAS HANDICAP ABOLISHED, CLAIM

"The common run of gasoline today is playing havoc with many engines. The fine gas of five years ago may still be purchased, but at drug store prices."

This was the statement made today by F. B. Smith, local agent for the Maxwell.

"It has made cars very difficult to start on a cold day, and causes much back firing, scored cylinders, and burned bearings, abnormal carbon deposit, and amazingly frequent grinding of valves."

"Many engineers saw this condition coming years ago but the Maxwell engineers were the first to develop a remedy. They knew there was as much power in low grade gas as in high grade gas. To get out all the power that Nature put in was the task. They designed two devices—'Hot Spot' and 'Ram's Horn.' 'Hot Spot' cracked up the gas to a very fine vapor after it left the carburetor and then turned over the vapor to 'Ram's Horn' which dispatched it a short and equal distance to each cylinder."

"The effect on gas upon striking 'hot spot' is like a drop of water striking on the top of a hot stove, turning the 'cloud' of gas then rushed through 'ram's horn,' which is minus sharp corners, abrupt bends and pockets; the distance to cylinders 1 and 4 being exactly the same as to the middle cylinders."

"The result is instantaneous firing; instantaneous power; no 'coughing' or back-firing."

MASON INJURED WHEN AUTO HITS SCAFFOLD

LOS ANGELES, Nov. 17.—Running too close to the curbing at West Tenth and Hill streets, a hotel bus driven by E. Kuivanen, knocked over the scaffolding from under a platform on which M. A. Clark, 60, was busy plastering a new building. He fell twenty feet and sustained painful injuries about the scalp, chin, lips and throat, but had no bones broken. He was removed to the Receiving Hospital for emergency treatment, then sent home.

CONTINUE HEARING IN 'JUICE' RATE CASE

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 17.—A continuance until January 17, 1921, was taken in the railroad commission hearing to fix permanent electric rates for the entire Pacific Gas and Electric company system, including the Sierra and San Francisco Power company properties operated under lease. The postponement was made to give engineers for the commission, the cities appearing in the various rate complaints that have been consolidated into one general case and the agricultural groups interested, an opportunity to study the valuations of the properties.

FEAR FOUL PLAY AS SUITCASE FOUND HERE

Suspicion of foul play to the person of one "John G. Hornbeck," is entertained by local police as a result of the finding early today of a wicker suitcase which had lain for some time beneath a pile of lumber in the yards of the Griffith Lumber company, and which police officials believe to belong to a man by that name.

Letters found in the suitcase addressed to "John G. Hornbeck" seem to indicate that he is or was its owner.

In addition, there were found two photographs, one supposedly of Hornbeck, taken at Carthage, Missouri, and one of a woman, evidently a photograph taken many years ago. A few articles of clothing were also found.

The letters, a number of which are from a year to two years old, show that Hornbeck resided at one time at Ulm, Montana, Carthage, Missouri, Glendale, Arizona, and Great Falls, Montana. Their contents would indicate that Hornbeck was either a farmer or a farm employee.

The case showed signs of having been rifled. Some of the articles of clothing were found stuffed between the crevices in the lumber nearby. Police officials think the suitcase may have been stolen by "hoboes" from Hornbeck at some other place, and brought here before being rifled.

No report has ever been made to local officials concerning the loss of such a suitcase, and no such man as Hornbeck has ever resided here, so far as is known. These facts lead the police to believe that the theft may have been perpetrated elsewhere, or that Hornbeck may have met a foul end.

'SLAVE' CASE MAN ELUDES OFFICERS

Police authorities in Orange county today redoubled their efforts to apprehend A. H. Joy following the filing of a complaint today by S. W. Miller, of Anaheim, charging Joy with the theft of Miller's automobile. Joy is said to have been living at the Hotel Valencia at Anaheim for the past month with a woman who posed as his wife. Joy eluded the Anaheim officers who several days ago began an investigation of him at the request of federal authorities, who were considering placing a "white slave" charge against him, and escaped surveillance by disappearing in Miller's machine, it is said.

Joy is said to have borrowed the machine from Miller for the purpose of using it for a few moments. Instead, it is charged, he smuggled his belongings out of the hotel without paying his bill, and left in Miller's car for parts unknown.

Manager Clark of the Hotel Valencia has also sworn to a complaint charging Joy with a misdemeanor in leaving the hotel and removing his baggage without paying his bill. It is also said that Joy took with him two blankets, two pillows, and a bath towel belonging to the hotel.

Joy is said to have a wife and three children in Washington. If apprehended a desertion charge will probably also be placed against him, in addition to the two complaints sworn to here.

The car lost by Miller was a Studebaker, with the motor number 473-197. He did not give the license number in making out the complaint. He values the car at $500.

TRAIN CREW IN GUN FIGHT WITH BANDITS

DENVER, Colo., Nov. 17.—Police today were searching this vicinity for six bandits who attempted to rob Union Pacific passenger train No. 114, eastbound, last night, and who derailed Rock Island passenger train No. 6, eastbound, six miles east of Denver.

The Union Pacific train was flagged at Sandow, a blind siding, near here, and the bandits attempted to board the train. Members of the train crew repulsed them with a volley of shots. One of the bandits was believed to have been wounded. The Rock Island train followed the Union Pacific train on the same track. It was flagged by the brakeman of the latter train while the battle with the bandits was in progress.

When the bandits fled in a motor car, both trains proceeded. Two Pullmans of the Rock Island train were derailed as they passed over a switch that had been tampered with.

Police believe the bandits intended to wreck the train.

THE NEWSPAPER'S COST
PROBLEM

That the newspapers of the country are in the midst of the most dangerous and difficult period in American newspaper history is emphasized by the announcement of the failure and suspension of the Kansas City Daily Journal, one of the greatest newspapers of the Middle West. The Kansas City Journal has been regarded as one of the leading dailies of the country since its organization in 1854. It has been the staunch bearer of the Republican banner for more than half a century, and it has weathered every storm and period of stress in all those years and come through smiling. It is now in the hands of its receivers because it has been unable to meet the enormous cost of operation that has faced all daily newspapers since the beginning of the war, and which still faces them with no apparent indication of relief.

During the past year scores of smaller newspapers have suspended publication through their inability to meet the unprecedented strain upon their finances. Nobody who is familiar with the situation has been surprised at the failure of the smaller papers. It will be surprising if they do not fall in increasing numbers during the coming year, and the newspapers of more substantial organization will survive only because of their reserve fund of cash, credit and character, and their ceaseless resourceful efforts.

The newspapers desiring to fall in line with other branches of industry that are readjusting their scale of prices downward find themselves face to face with an impossible situation. More revenue, and not less, will have to be the solution of the present newspaper problem. Increased volume will not help the average daily newspaper. Increased circulation in many cases will mean a direct loss to the newspaper, because the price a newspaper can sell for is more than offset by the expense of producing it. Regarding the possibility of a reduction in newspaper advertising rates the following bulletin from the American Newspaper Publishers' Association will be of interest:

Rates Higher, Not Lower
Newspaper publishers and special representatives who have to meet the question as to whether or not present newspaper advertising rates are high, will find some very valuable information in an article on pages 7 and 8 of the November 6th issue of Editor & Publisher.

This article reviews the increase in costs in newspaper making, especially as they refer to wage scales, and shows that the increased costs are up in many instances to a figure that is well beyond 100 per cent.

These are purely labor statistics and do not take into consideration the increased cost of white paper which will be even higher to some publishers during 1921 than during the past year. As an expert who has studied these "costs of production" figures puts it: "Any talk of a reduction in newspaper rates is sheer nonsense. Even at present figures, newspaper advertising rates are low, and if there is any revision at all during the coming year, it will be upward, and not downward."

How charmingly appropriate that England, Italy and France chose the Thanksgiving season to announce which piece of Turkey they prefer!

ANALYZE WATER

Six hundred and five absolute cases of typhoid and 400 near cases is the record for one small Ohio town as the result of an infected water supply. The situation is so serious that application has been made to the governor of the state for aid in fighting the epidemic. Frequent and regular analysis of the water would have saved all this trouble.

Since the epidemic broke out, tests have been made and the entire system has been investigated. It has developed that the source of the supply is untainted, but leaking pipes have permitted the seeping of sewage into the water mains with consequent disaster. Periodic tests would have revealed the impurity of the water in time to prevent any serious spread of disease germs. The citizens could have been notified to boil all water while repairs and purifications were in process, and the number of typhoid cases would have been few if any.

It makes no difference whether the water supply comes from a municipal reservoir or from a well on private property, eternal vigilance is the price of health.

LINE OF DEFENSE

Holland has been obliged to establish a cordon of guards along the German frontier, to bar the influx of Red emissaries from Russia. Germany, it appears, has a sort of "underground railroad" to smuggle them across.

The United States is more favorably situated than Holland. Between America and Bolshevism lies the broad sea. Hitherto the watch has not been thoroughly effective, because there have been watchmen only on this side of the water. The Department of State has now set up an outer line of defense. Consuls at European ports have been instructed to refuse passports to any prospective immigrants about whose purposes there is any doubt.

The measure is especially commendable in view of the pretentious efforts now being made by the Soviet government to flood other lands with its "missionaries." The same policy might well be applied to immigration in general. Most of the weeding out could be done as easily at the ports of embarkation as at the ports of entry, and most of the undesirable could thus be stopped before they start.

Universal Crime Wave

San Bernardino Index—
Of seven large cities in the United States only one records a decrease in crime during the past ten months. This one city is Cleveland, whose police records show 70 murders. No reason is assigned for the decrease.

In the other six cities, and in scores of other cities not reporting, crime has broken all previous records.

Philadelphia had 70 murders in the past ten months and Pittsburgh 13, with a 20 per cent increase in other cities.

San Francisco reports three unsolved murders and an increase in other cities.

St. Louis had three murders which are yet unsolved, which is said to be a record.

Detroit tops the list with 112 murders during the year, 27 of which remain a mystery.

Chicago had 68 murders, or 23 more than in 1919.

Homicides in Los Angeles have been numerous, but no statistics have been given out.

A wave of crime is sweeping the world and the United States has not fallen behind in any particular. The striking feature of this wave is the large number of murders which the police are unable to solve.

Some statisticians lay the blame for the increase in minor crimes in this country to prohibition. This is an ill-considered judgment. The outstanding reason is the great war. Crime waves have followed all big wars, and the fact that the present crime wave is general throughout the world would seem to sustain that view, since prohibition is by no means universal.

Growth of High Schools
San Bernardino Index—
Statistics show that in 1890 only 9,120 teachers were employed in the high schools of the United States. Today high school teachers number more than 81,000. These figures indicate a fast-growing appreciation on the part of parents of the value of education and recall the vanishing type of old-fashioned father who liked to say: "What was good enough for me is good enough for my children."

It doesn't take an old man to remember the time when high schools were regarded largely as institutions for children of the well-to-do. Today the newest high schools are great workshops where hand and mind are being trained simultaneously. Small wonder the number of high school teachers has increased 800 per cent in a generation—and that there are not enough of them.

A Ticklish Job
San Bernardino Index—
One of the duties confronting the sixty-seventh Congress will be the passage of a new apportionment law for the election of Representatives. Under the 1920 census the membership of the House will be increased from 435 to more than 485 unless the present proportion of one Congressman to each 211,877 of population is changed.

Even though the membership is maintained at present by increasing that ratio, it will mean that some states will have to surrender one or more members in favor of other states that show a greater population increase in the last decade.

If the number of Congressmen is reduced, still more sacrifices must be made. The question is complex and embarrassing, one which will require a maximum of tact and legislative acumen to solve successfully.

A HARDWARE ROMANCE

Our heroine had golden 'locks'; her 'nails' were manicured, and she paid packs of income 'taxes'; to wealth she was inured. Our hero 'saw' the little maid, and thought he'd try to date her. She wore 'plane' 'heels', and goodness knows 'Jack' wished to 'cultivate'. Just then he 'saw' her 'razor' skirts a 'bit' while on the 'square', sir. She got a jolt as, with a 'bolt', he hurried to her there, sir. She turned her 'lamps' on 'Jack' and 'bit' her lips till they were 'pail', sir, and said, "You 'rake'! Just make a break, or you will go to jail, sir. 'That's 'em', said she. "Obey my 'rule.' You'd better make a start, sir." Then 'adze', "You bet I never let a 'monkey wrench' my heart, sir."

Observe Rules of Walk

Philadelphia Bulletin

Rules of the road, as promulgated by the state highway department, are written on the law books and are subject to enforcement, so that the person who disregards them does so at his own peril, abrogating his claim for injuries if an accident should result, and rendering himself liable to a penalty for his carelessness.

On the sidewalk the consideration is chiefly of convenience, rather than of safety, and there is not the necessity for official regulation. But jans would often be relieved, or rather, obviated, if similar rules of the walk were more generally observed.

Individually most persons instinctively pass to the right when meeting a pedestrian coming toward them in their particular pathway, but in the mass there is comparatively little respect for the right and left hand pathways, or no effort to maintain a course as near as possible to the right hand edge of the

TODAY'S TALK

By George Matthew Adams

THIS UNEVEN LIFE

George Chesterton once said that "this is the best of all impossible worlds."

There are few of us to whom the picture of an uneven world does not come, time and time again. But uneven as it is, there are hours of such exquisite beauty intermixed with all its unevenness and unfairness, that we know in our hearts that it is worth while, after all.

Much of our lives must be devoted to a smoothing process—making our ways happier by thinking about the happiness of other people.

Yes, this is a very uneven world. To our own minds, we are cheated out of much that we well deserve. But all the time we are controlled by forces infinitely wiser than any that we are able to devise. And so, for the larger good, we must be brave and plod on.

The greatest man who ever lived—in point of soul and character—was "a man of sorrows."

We live very uneven lives—and many of the rewards of this life are given over to underserving hands. But it is the affair of each one of us to prove adequate to the task at hand.

Cromwell once said: "Trust in God—and keep your powder dry!" And that is what we must do. We must not ourselves spoil—nor allow others to spoil—that fine sense of proportion which may be the heritage of us all, when dire days come to us.

This uneven life—you can do much to make it even!

The Next Legislature

By The Associate Editor

The next legislature will have a lot of important legislation to deal with.

So far as the memory of Californians travel back, every legislature has been heralded as a legislature with a lot of big things on its hands. Some of the legislatures have done some very big things, and some other legislatures haven't distinguished themselves, excepting by doing things they ought not to have done.

Whether the legislature that convenes on the first Monday in January is to do big things or be content with worrying along through four months of turmoil remains to be seen. If one may be allowed to judge by a cursory estimate of the personnel of the coming legislature, no hesitation need occur in reaching a conclusion to the effect that the legislature will do things worth while.

The personnel will be strong. The leadership is to be experienced.

Wright as Speaker.

Present indications are that Assemblyman Wright of Pasadena will be chosen again as speaker of the assembly. Assemblyman Wright of San Francisco has been up and down the state two or three times scouting for support for the speakership, but he seems not to have cut the mustard. Wright has the backing of the Stephens administration, which counts for a good deal, and there is every reason to believe that he will have nearly every assemblyman in Southern California lined up for him.

Even the Betterment Association, which was not friendly to Wright during the last legislature, seems to have climbed on his bandwagon. And Wright is an ideal man for the place—forceful, resourceful, experienced and on the square.

This Betterment Association operated under a different name during the last legislature. It then went under the name of the California Commercial Federation.

Its general attitude was opposition to labor measures, always with its hands out to support big business measures, and an expressed desire to cut down the number and reduce the power of commissions in this state.

There was always and still is a suspicion that the association's real aim was to destroy as much of the Johnson legislation as was possible. The suspicion still clings.

It was this association under a new name that sponsored the tax initiative measure that appeared as No. 4 on the ballot on November 2.

Measure Defeated.

While the association representatives declared up and down the state that it proposed to raise the number of names needed to initiate legislation from eight per cent to twenty-five per cent in order to kill all further efforts of the single-taxers, the voters of the state evidently saw in the proposal a direct assault upon the initiative. At least, the voters turned down the measure overwhelmingly.

One might very easily conclude that the result of this effort of the Betterment Association has chastened the spirit of the association leaders considerably.

However, the association figures on playing a heavy hand at the next legislature. A few evenings ago it had most of the Southern California legislators-elect and legislators-hold-over at a dinner in Los Angeles, and explained to them that there are a few things that the association thinks the next legislature ought to do.

To begin with, however, the association leaders said that they believed that there should be a combination of all of the legislators of Southern California with Charles Lyon of Los Angeles as spokesman. Very naturally and wisely, however, this proposal was rejected by the Southern California legislators who represent Southern California districts outside of Los Angeles.

Cow Counties Shy.

The experience of legislators all up and down the state has been that they get very little by tying up with the big city groups, for a big city group plays the whole game for its city. It is very glad indeed to cooperate with the "cow counties," as the counties of the state that do not include some big city are affectionately termed at Sacramento, so long as the thing "co-operated for" is something the big city wants.

But when it comes to getting support for something his county wants the cow county man has to depend upon cow county support.

Therefore, the suggestion that the Southern California assemblymen and senators tie up with the Los Angeles leadership idea did not meet with approval.

The big thing that the next legislature may undertake—and if it undertakes it with Gov. Stephens' approval it will be accomplished—is the consolidation of all state departments into twelve departments.

Governor Friendly?

This plan was recommended by an efficiency commission at the last legislature, and the plan was tried out by the consolidation of a number of minor departments into one, the State Department of Agriculture. It is declared that the plan has worked out successfully, and there is a suggestion that the governor is rather inclined toward extending the program further during the next legislature.

This consolidation work promises to be the big thing up for the consideration of the next legislature. Those who have always stood strong for the humanitarian and governmental policies put into law by the Johnson administration will be on their guard against any adjustments that will lose ground for those policies. If the Betterment Association is merely seeking efficiency in government and is not really aiming to scuttle the legislation put into effect by the Johnson administration the consolidation of departments program may go through with ease.

Orange county will have two very capable men in the legislature this coming session. They are going with their hands free—Walter Eden to the State Senate and Captain Hart to the assembly.

Going Independent.

Doubtless the Betterment Association will put up a lot of good measures. It did at the last legislature. Walter Eden was then an assemblyman, and his hands were not tied. The things that the Betterment Association, then operating under the name of the California Commercial Federation, put up that he considered good he voted for, and the things he did not like he voted against.

So Orange county is to be congratulated upon the independence of its representatives. There will be a lot of legislation proposed in which this county will be interested directly. Eden and Hart can be depended upon to look after the county's interests.

All Fat People

Easily Reduce

The world owes a debt of gratitude to the author of the now famous Marmola Prescription, and is still more indebted for the reduction of this harmless, effective obesity remedy to tablet form. They are so convenient to take, and as pleasant as candy. One after each meal and at bedtime will quickly reduce your weight, two, three or four pounds a week, and leave no evil effects such as loose, flabby skin and unsightly wrinkles. Just go on eating what you like—leave exercise to the athletes—take your little tablet as directed and soon you will be your natural self, cloaked in firm flesh and trim muscles. Marmola Prescription Tablets may now be obtained at all drug stores, or by writing direct to the Marmola Co., 92 Carfield Building, Detroit, Mich., and their reasonable price—one dollar for a good size box—leaves no excuse for dieting or violent exercise for the reduction of the overfat body to normal proportions.

PIMPPLY? WELL, DON'T BE

People Notice It. Drive Them Off with Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets

A pimply face will not embarrass you much longer if you get a package of Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets. The skin should begin to clear after you have taken the tablets a few nights.

Clearse the blood, bowels and liver with Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets, the successful substitute for calomel; there's no sickness or pain after taking them. Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets do that which calomel does, and just as effectively, but their action is gentle and safe instead of severe and irritating. No one who takes Olive Tablets is ever cursed with a "dark brown taste," a bad breath, a dull, listless, "no good" feeling, constipation, torpid liver, bad disposition or pimply face.

Olive Tablets are a purely vegetable compound mixed with olive oil; you will know them by their olive color.

Dr. Edwards spent years among patients afflicted with liver and bowel complaints, and Olive Tablets are the immensely effective result. Take one or two nightly for a week. See how much better you feel and look.

THE SOCIAL MIRROR

Carden Home Scene
of Evening Party

Many friends of Mr. and Mrs. Lester L. Carden spent a delightful evening at bridge, at the Cardens' handsome new home, 1522 North Broadway, last night.

Charming bouquets of pink carnations and chrysanthemums brightened the home. The guests played bridge at five tables, each table bearing a graceful pink nubby basket, with tulle bow knots.

The ladies' first prize was won by Mrs. W. H. Spurgeon Jr., and the ladies' consolation prize by Mrs. Harvey Gardner. Gentlemen's first prize was won by Arthur Lutz and gentleman's consolation prize went to Frank B. Miller.

Those attending the happy affair were: Mr. and Mrs. William A. Flood, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Spurgeon Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Edward McWilliams, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Lacy, Mr. and Mrs. Emory White, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Lutz, Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Gardner, Mr. and Mrs. Frank B. Miller, Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Hill and Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Miles.

Reception for Mrs. Hansen
A reception and wedding dinner was given Sunday evening by Mrs. Renette Hansen, at her home in Long Beach, in honor of her daughter-in-law, Mrs. Hansen, whose marriage to her son Albert, occurred in San Francisco Sunday, November 7. The bride is a sister of H. E. Wahlgren, Orange county farm advisor.

Mrs. Hansen's home was decorated with a color scheme of pink with a profusion of pink sweet peas adorning the center of the dinner table. The guests numbered over forty, including: Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Hansen, Los Angeles; Dr. and Mrs. A. W. Ranzells, San Diego; Mr. and Mrs. O. W. Struthoff, Los Angeles; Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Wahlgren, Santa Ana; Mrs. W. Hauptman and Otto Hauptman, Los Angeles; Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Hauptman, Los Angeles; Mrs. Dora Frenz, Anaheim; Mrs. Joe Witt and son, Santa Ana; Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Dunn; Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Carson, Pasadena, and Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Boone, Long Beach.

Fraternal Brotherhood
Members of the Fraternal Brotherhood lodge are anticipating a very pleasant time tomorrow evening when they will be hosts to the Riverside lodge. The work will be put on by the visiting team. A large attendance, both visitors and local members is expected.

Masons Plan Smoker
Plans are being made for a smoker at the Masonic Temple, under the auspices of the Blue Lodge, on Friday evening, November 19, at 7:30 p. m. All Masons, including candidates for the year, are invited. The purpose of the meeting is to get acquainted with sojourning brethren, as well as with the new members.

Dinner and Smoker
The Orange County Anniversary club held a delightful and more or less unique session last night in the gold room of James' cafe, it being the monthly meeting of the organization. Following the serving of a dinner, the members paid their respects to Sam Jerinigan and Dr. R. A. Cushman, extolling the fine qualities of each and wishing them many happy returns on their birthday anniversary.

D. Eymann Huff was chairman of the meeting, presiding in the absence of W. F. Scott, president of the club. Dr. Wilhelm of Anaheim and W. R. Sadler of Santa Ana were guests.

Members present were: C. R. Stuckey, Charles Rozell, William Fitcher, Ralph Fuller, Dr. R. A. Cushman, D. Eymann Huff, Sam Jerinigan, Oscar Leichtfuss, J. C. Metzgar, Horace Pine, Fred Grote, William Holt and Harry Whitaker.

Third Section to Meet
The Third Section of Ebell Household Economics will hold a meeting with Mrs. A. C. Bowers, 1401 North Main street, Friday afternoon at 2:30.

Defer County Club Dance
The dance which was to have been given tomorrow night at the Orange County Country club has been postponed until Friday evening, December 3, to suit the convenience of the hostess for the evening, Mrs. George Jeffrey, of Irvine.

Lincoln P. T. A.
Members of the Lincoln Parent-Teachers' Association will hold a meeting on Thursday afternoon, at 2:30 o'clock, in the kindergarten building of Lincoln school.

Card Club Meets
The Middle Aged Ladies' club met yesterday afternoon for a pleasant round of bridge, at the home of Mrs. J. L. Clark. The club ladies, who, for years, have met every fortnight, are among the social pioneers of the city. Their friendship and club loyalty have grown with each successive afternoon of social chat and cards.

Mrs. Will A. Huff was awarded first prize in yesterday's game and Mrs. C. V. Davis, the second prize.

Honored With Dinner
John Scott Burns, southern district manager of the Reliance Life Insurance company, was honored by a dinner given at James' last evening, by the members of the local agency, of which Mr. A. M. Lacy is manager. Mrs. C. V. Barnett assisted in entertaining the guest.

BAPTISTS PLAN TO COMBINE HOSPITALS

EL PASO, Tex., Nov. 17.—The plan of the Baptist church in Texas to build in Dallas the greatest medical center in the south by uniting the Baptist sanitarium and the Baylor Medical college at Dallas, was unfolded by officials of the two institutions in reports made at the Baptist general convention of Texas in session here.

According to Dr. George W. Truett of Dallas, funds for the proposal are available and preliminary steps have been taken.

Dr. J. D. Sauder, president of Simmons college at Abilene, was elected president of the convention yesterday to succeed M. H. Wolfe, of Dallas.

Bridge Luncheon at Home of Mrs. Tuthill

Yellow chrysanthemums were the floral note of a charming bridge luncheon, yesterday afternoon, at the home of Mrs. R. G. Tuthill, 1702 North Broadway. The guests were seated at five small tables, where a three-course luncheon was served. A delightful afternoon at bridge was enjoyed. Mrs. John Tubbs, won first prize and Mrs. Howard Timmons, second.

Students' Musical
A very pleasant pupils' recital was held on Monday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Clarence Gustlin, in which a number of his piano students participated.

Preceding the program Mr. Gustlin spoke of the importance of learning by doing and the value to the musical performer of frequent experience in playing for others, urging each one to avail himself of every such opportunity.

An interesting article on this subject by Josef Hoffman was read, also some very entertaining anecdotes about famous musicians setting forth their whimsicalities and eccentricities. The memorization of all the numbers presented was a feature of the program, which proved very enjoyable in the revelation of clever accomplishment by such young students in the realm of technique and interpretation. Beauty of tone production and expression were points which had evidently received careful attention by master and pupil.

The following had part in the program: Martha and Dolph Kelsey, Helen Bell, Madeline Barker, Virginia Hall, Rose Marie Smith, Margaret Glenn, Eleanor Crookshank, Lorene Moore, Ethel Karp, Ida Thorland, Elizabeth Bruner, Russell Rowland.

Entertains Clubwomen

The women ruled El Centro last night. Coming from San Diego, San Francisco, Los Angeles and the counties comprising the Southern District Federation of Women's Clubs—San Diego, Imperial, San Bernardino, Riverside and Orange—they are in the Imperial Valley city to discuss important matters in which women are interested, as well as to elect officers for the ensuing year. Gossip largely centers on the latter point, and there is likely to be a spirited contest for the district presidency.

Last night, at the Barbara Worth Hotel, they were given a reception.

Fraternal Aid Union

Mrs. Allie M. Cain, chaplain of the Fraternal Aid Union, and her nephew Mr. R. L. Loucks, entertained last evening the officers of the Fraternal Aid Union, at 621 Hickey street.

Masses of holly branches and ferns were used in decorating the home. The game for the evening was progressive rook, the partners for the game being selected by means of conundrums, which were cleverly concealed within nut shells. The question in one and the answer in another matched up the players.

At the close of the count, Mrs. W. G. Gould was declared winner of first prize, and Mr. T. L. Warren, winner of first gentlemen's prize, booby prizes being awarded to Mr. W. G. Gould and Miss Pearl Pankey. Delicious refreshments were served, consisting of ice cream, cake and coffee.

Miss Onita Cain gave a number of piano selections during the evening, and the affair was a thoroughly enjoyable one.

The invited guests were: Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Gould, Mr. and Mrs. R. P. Mitchell, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Patterson, Mr. and Mrs. Robert J. Brown, Mr. and Mrs. Emory Peacock, Mr. and Mrs. T. L. Warren, Mr. and Mrs. T. A. Armstrong, Mr. and Mrs. J. Wiley Harris, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Schrott, Mr. and Mrs. Morris A. Cain and Miss Pearl Pankey and Miss Marston.

Homer Cain and Miss Onita Cain assisted Mrs. Cain in entertaining.

Initiation Meeting

A special meeting for initiation of candidates will be held tomorrow evening by the Fraternal Aid Union at the Woodman hall. An interesting program, with music and readings, has been prepared, and the refreshments will be of a Thanksgiving nature. All members are urged to come and be on hand, at Woodman hall.

Direct route to Los Angeles via Motor Transit Lines leaving the depot at 5th and Spurgeon street on half hourly schedule every day. The quickest route to Anaheim or Fullerton.

Resinol
does wonders
for sick skins

That itching, burning skin-trouble which keeps you scratching and digging, is a source of embarrassment, as well as of annoyance to you. Why don't you get rid of it by using Resinol Ointment? Physicians prescribe it constantly. In most cases, it stops itching instantly and heals eruptions promptly. It is very easy and economical to use.

Sold by all druggists. Resinol Ointment should usually be used by Resinol Soap.

RED CROSS ALL
SET FOR SALE
OF SEALS

NEW YORK, Nov. 17.—Thanksgiving Day, November 25, has been officially designated as opening day of the 1920 Christmas Seal Sale by the National Tuberculosis Association.

Seals will be placed on sale on that day in every state in the union by the 1,100 tuberculosis associations of which the California Tuberculosis Association is the parent body in this state. In California there are associations in 57 counties, all of which have completed organization for the conduct of this year's sale.

In addition to the Christmas Seals, an attractive Health Bond is also being offered for sale, the coupons of which are guaranteed to return dividends in individual and community health.

It is from the proceeds of the Christmas Seal Sale that the remarkable preventative work and the care of those suffering from tuberculosis is carried on in the United States. Of the funds thus derived, over 95 per cent is spent in the state and 95 per cent used in the community purchasing the seals. This is possible through the utter absence of red tape in the administration of the various tuberculosis associations.

The 1920 Christmas Seal is one of the most attractive ever put out and is done in three colors, red, blue and green. It represents a joyous youngster carrying the double barred emblem of the international tuberculosis fight against tuberculosis, riding on the shoulders of Santa Claus and carries the message "Merry Christmas" also "Healthy New Year." In addition to providing the stews for the organized war on the great white plague, it provides an attractive little sticker for Christmas packages.

STEAL TRUCK FROM FACTORY IN PIECES

KEARNY, N. J., Nov. 17.—The police believe they have solved the mystery of the disappearance some weeks ago of a complete but unassembled automobile truck chassis from the Ford automobile factory here. Four men were arrested on the charge of taking the automobile from the plant, piece by piece for the purpose of assembling it at the home of one of them.

The police claim that they have obtained a confession from Ferdinand and have discovered the assembled automobile in the cellar of Donicola's home in Union. The truck was valued at $2200 and its loss was discovered when an inventory was taken Sept. 28.

WITNESS TO LINCOLN
ASSASSINATION DIES

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 17.—John C. Weaver, civil war veteran, said to be the last survivor of the six soldiers who carried President Lincoln to the White House after he was shot in Ford's theater, Washington, died at his home in this city. He was 88 years old.

PERSONALS

Miss Estelle Nisson, a Stanford alumnus, has left with a party of Los Angeles friends for a trip by automobile. Those in the party will see the football game Saturday between Stanford and the University of California.

County Sealer of Weights and Measures George McPhee and his daughter, Mrs. R. M. Chesnut of Seattle, are in Los Angeles today. Mr. McPhee is attending the conference of the Sealers of Weights and Measures and Mrs. Chesnut is visiting friends and her husband's people at Long Beach.

Mrs. L. C. Swearingen, 1421 West Second street, has received the news of the death of her brother, R. F. Turner, who died in Chico, Butte county, Sunday morning.

SCOUT PROGRAM MAKES MEN OF BOYS--HEIDT

That the Boy Scout movement offers the active boy something to do, something that goes to make the boy develop into a real man, was declared in an address to the fathers' meeting of the Parent-Teacher association of Washington school last night. The address was delivered by Elmer E. Heidt, Boy Scout executive for Orange county.

Heidt had fifteen or twenty Boy Scouts on hand for the purpose of illustrating some of the work that is done with the boys. Signaling demonstrations were given.

"The Boy Scout program," said Heidt, "is designed to teach an active boy how to do for himself. Training, building fires, taking care of camp, meeting emergencies in the way of wounds and fractures, and the many other things that are taught a boy, all tend to develop self-reliance and resourcefulness.

Four Main Points

"There are four main points in the aim of the program. First, is the Boy Scout oath and law, to which every boy must devote himself as long as he is a Boy Scout. Second, character building. Third, citizenship training. Fourth, physical fitness.

"Scouting aims to supervise the leisure time of the growing boy. Every healthy boy is active. He is anxious to learn. He must have some avenue along which his active brain and body must travel. The

COUNTY NURSES MEET FRIDAY TO TAKE NEW ORGANIZATION STEPS

Graduate nurses of Orange county are to meet at the home of Mrs. J. M. Burlew, 1015 North Broadway, Friday afternoon at 2:30 for the purpose of effecting an organization of county nurses.

A committee appointed at a recent meeting to act on the matter of drawing up a constitution and by-laws for the proposed organization is expected to report at the meeting Friday. The report of the committee will be discussed and it is expected that further action toward the organization of the nurses' association will be taken.

All graduate nurses of Orange county are being urged to attend.

PILGRIM PAGEANT CHIEFS WILL MEET

Financial questions concerning the production of the big Pilgrim Pageant, December 21, are expected to form the principal part of a business meeting to be held at 7:30 o'clock this evening at the Congregational church.

The meeting is scheduled to be attended by members of the general committee in charge of the pageant, as well as the finance committee.

The director of each episode is expected to make a report on the estimated cost of producing the section of the pageant of which he or she is in charge. These reports will be considered by the committee and some arrangements for the financing are expected to be made.

Mrs. L. A. Pyne, of Los Angeles, was a week-end guest of Mrs. Lillian Bishop, 502 South Broadway.

Keep your house clean with Hokus Pokus—Adv.

Boy Scout work is designed to give vent to this surplus energy in a way that will develop the boy.

City School Superintendent J. A. Cranston in a short talk to the fathers and mothers pointed out what has been accomplished by the Junior Red Cross movement in the city schools. He is developing among children the idea of service, and in developing thoughtfulness for children less fortunate than are the children of Santa Ana. He said that he believed the Mexican schools of the city have opened up right here at home opportunities for useful service.

Mrs. Thomas Presides

Mrs. W. H. Thomas, president of the association, was in charge of the meeting. Roll call of parents showed that Miss Mary Wilson's class had won the right to have the P. T. A. picture kept in its room for the coming month.

The program opened with two very pleasing songs by the boys' glee club of the school. These boys and some of the Boy Scouts aided in serving chocolate and doughnuts as refreshments in a delightful social hour following the evening's program. A group of boys sold home-made candy, and thereby added nearly $11 to the association's treasury.

LIFE OF PURITY IS URGED BY EVANGELIST

"Don't do anything that you would blush for, if mother came upon you unawares," Evangelist Albert C. Fisher told 150 men who attended the banquet of the Booster Brotherhood of the First Methodist church last night, and later attended the regular revival service in a body. The speaker's text was, "Keep Thyself Pure."

This advice, the evangelist said, was given by a mother to her son who was about to leave the protection and influence of his home.

"Don't do anything to disgrace the mother-blood that runs in your veins," she told the boy. "Be proud of your mother, and that you are her son."

"The boy of 21, who can look back and see he has never put his foot on his mother's heart," Rev. Fisher continued, "has a life of joy and rounded strength to look forward to, that is a precious inheritance. Be true to God. Take your stand for Christ as a man. Avoid the subtlety of evil thought."

"Every fellow owes it to himself and his parents, and to God, to be the best man possible," he said. "You owe it to your sweetheart to give her the same purity as you expect of her."

"We believe in pure food, pure water, pure drugs—why not in pure manhood? How easy it is to drift to impurity! It is a mighty small step from slang to vulgarity, and from vulgarity to profanity. Few of us are cultivating pure English in our language. It is tragedy that girls use such coarse slang. What is the home of the future going to be with the use of such language?"

"Man was made in the image of God. The purer he becomes, the more Godlike he is in his character, and the less pure, the less Godlike. There are a few folks who believe and practice the double standard, a standard born in hell and which sends men and women to perdition."

COURT SCORES PASTOR FOR WORKING FOR $93

CLEVELAND, Nov. 17.—Is it extreme cruelty for a minister to remain in his pulpit at $93 a month when he has a wife and five children to support, Common Pleas Judge Frank Phillips declared in an opinion handed down in a divorce suit filed by Reverend B. A. Sherwin against his wife.

Judge Phillips refused to grant Rev. Sherwin a divorce and ordered that he pay his wife $60 a month alimony. Custody of their five children was given to Mrs. Sherwin.

"I consider it extreme cruelty for a man with a wife and five children to remain at his job, even though it be that of a minister, which pays only $93 a month. An able bodied man such as you are should have taken up some other profession," Judge Phillips declared.

Sherwin has obtained employment as a machinist.

CAR CRASH AT BEACH; S. A. MAN ACCUSED OF DRIVING WHILE DRUNK

F. T. Stewart, of this city, was arrested at Long Beach, and is being held in the city jail there for trial on a charge of driving an automobile while intoxicated, according to a report reaching here from the beach city. His hearing is set for Friday morning at 10 o'clock.

According to the police of Long Beach, Stewart was arrested by Jacob N. Dannenbaum of 243 South Olive street, Los Angeles, after his machine had collided with that of Dannenbaum. The latter, accompanied by Mrs. Dannenbaum, N. E. Gross, of 725 Sunset boulevard, Los Angeles, took Stewart to the police station, from the scene of the accident, which occurred near the Chateau Thierry flying field. According to statements made to the police, Stewart tried to drive away after the collision, but was held by the people in the other car.

NEW MAIL SCHEDULE HARDSHIP CLAIM

In connection with the delivery of mail, particularly to local merchants, the change in the train schedule of the Santa Fe, between here and Los Angeles, effective last Sunday is causing many hardships, in the opinion of those who are familiar with the new conditions.

Few business men are cognizant of the change. Mail which formerly arrived here at 3:15 p. m. was delivered by the carriers in the business district the same afternoon. The change in the schedule makes the arrival of this mail from Los Angeles an hour later, or 4:15 p. m. This is too late to handle on the afternoon of arrival, and the mail has to be held over for the first delivery the following morning.

Postmaster Charles D. Overshiner, who was advised two weeks ago of the proposed change, once took the matter up with F. I. R. Moore, chief clerk of the Railway Mail Service, in Los Angeles, and asked that arrangements be made to have a pouch sent down on the P. E. which leaves Los Angeles at 2:06 p. m. It is understood that the details of such an arrangement must have the approval of postal authorities at Washington, which means that it probably will be some time before it is known definitely whether the service will be available to Santa Ana.

2 LOS ANGELES GIRLS MISSING FROM HOMES

LOS ANGELES, Nov. 17.—Corrine Blackton, 23 years old, and Mrs. Louise "Billie" Daniels, 17, are missing. Both are suspected of having been made the victim of white slave operators. Miss Blackton disappeared from the home of Mrs. K. McLaughlin, 1880 Estrella avenue. Shortly thereafter Mrs. McLaughlin received a note from a mysterious man in Sacramento to the effect that "Corrine is in good company." Mrs. Daniels may be identified, according to her husband, D. F. Daniels, 433 South Hope street, who reported her missing, by a butterfly tattooed above her left knee.

OTHER SIDE OF SUIT OVER BEANS

Attorney H. J. Forgy, representing C. C. Collins and company, in the case of Henry Winters vs. the Collins company, a suit to collect on a contract for the delivery of beans, calls attention to what he characterizes as the misleading character of the report of the case on the bare basis of the court proceedings.

He says the report gives the impression that non-suit in favor of the Collins company was secured on technical grounds, when in fact it was given on specific and unquestionable violation of the contract on the part of Winters.

According to the contract, Forgy says, the beans were to be delivered released on or before Oct. 20, 1918. They were not so delivered at all, and were not released until Jan. 1919; and then they were not of the quality or grade called for by the contract.

Mr. Forgy explained that beans bought for October delivery are sold in October delivery, because the market is constantly fluctuating, and failure of the grower to deliver on time forces the broker to default in his contract to deliver to his customers or he must fill his order from another source.

Mr. Forgy says further, that the Collins company never accepted the quality of Winters' beans, and never endorsed his receipt in a way to make it the basis of credit on the strength of the endorsement. "The beans were delivered to the Golden West Warehouse company at Wintersburg theoretically for the Collins company and the receipt was erroneously made out in favor of the Collins company; but the beans belonged to Winters, and in order that he might borrow money on them, the Collins company endorsed the erroneous receipt in his favor—merely a correction of an error."

In speaking of this matter today, W. C. Collins said this is the first lawsuit his father, C. C. Collins, has had in all his years of business life.

QUAKERS HANDLE SMITH'S CREW SO ROUGHLY!

Coach Stewart ("Shorty") Smith, of the Fullertonites, took his charges over to Whittier yesterday afternoon and went through a somewhat rough session with Whittier college.

As concerns figures, the score was 21 to 10 in favor of the Quakers.

However, the collegians also scored several black eyes and two front teeth on the visitors.

It was Talbot Bielefeld who donated the dental equipment, unfortunately for Bielefeld, in more ways than one, for his parents today put down their respective feet and issued a ukase to the effect that son Talbot should play no more football, at least not this season.

All of which is something of a blow to Coach Smith, as Bielefeld was one of his mainstays, alternating with Merwin Wagner at left guard. Still, a mere black eye or two probably will not interfere with the Oil Drillers plowing into the Santa Anas with their accustomed vigor, when the championship fracas is pulled off at Fullerton Saturday afternoon.

Suspense in Air.
Not past history but history for the future is the principal interest in high school circles today. As in any normal institution with a customary amount of school spirit, the days before the big conflict of the season are fraught with a considerable degree of suspense. Even staid old-timers on the streets of Santa Ana are finding football and championship possibilities of the Poly high boys most fascinating topics of conversation.

Over in Fullerton a similar condition is said to exist. The coming game is common talk on the street corners and wherever a crowd of high school boys assemble, the respective merits of opposing players and the probable outcome of the game are the most interesting subjects of discussion.

Almost every one admits that the outcome of the game is a matter of grave doubt, but there are people in Fullerton who have allowed their prejudices to control them to the extent that they are willing to concede that Santa Ana has not a chance when the Poly high boys tangle with their Oil Drillers.

Want to Meet Beaters.
Since the disastrous defeat of San Diego by Long Beach, in which the hopes of the southern city for a championship were rudely shattered, local boys are more than ever anxious for an opportunity to meet the beach city team, as it will mean a quicker path to greater honors. Fullerton must first be vanquished, and local pluck artists are merely waiting until Saturday for the opportunity.

The preliminary games of the "flea weights," tomorrow, and of the second team on Friday, are expected to prove exciting battles. Both teams have caught the spirit of the occasion and will fight to the last ditch for the honors. The opportunity for a triple win appeals to the little fellows, as well as to the second string men, and they hope to pave the way for the first team, which is expected to furnish the final denouement Saturday.

OIL LEASES SIGNED UP N. E. OF ORANGE

A number of property holders in the vicinity of Collins and Tustin avenues, northeast of Orange, were dreaming of future oil dividends today, as the result of the organization of a community lease involving 170 acres.

Seventeen property owners of the district discussed the lease offer at a mass meeting and signed up their acreage. The leases are made to J. O. Arkley, of Garden Grove, who is said to have formerly been connected with oil interests at Santa Barbara. It is understood that Arkley will organize a company at once for prospecting the section, and it is expected that drilling operations will commence within six months. The property is new wildcat territory. The mass meeting was held at the home of Charles Pister.

Those present were: R. A. Shadowen, Forrest Talmadge, W. W. Perry, C. A. Knuth, Charles Nelson, C. E. Smiley, B. M. Thompson, Charles Pister, C. C. Youngs, L. F. Robinson, C. F. Talmadge, J. B. Meehan, D. W. Gruwell, T. H. Eljah, A. H. Crimp, Dr. M. C. Meyers and C. F. Parker.

"Six months ago Tanlac set me right and from then until now I have enjoyed absolutely the best health I ever did in my life," was the statement made recently by R. M. Wallace, of Oregon City, Oregon.

I tried everything anybody told me about and at times would be a little better, but soon my old troubles would come back. My appetite was so poor that I have gone for two days at a time without touching a bite hardly, and every time I did eat anything I had to pay for it in suffering.

"I lost weight and strength and finally I became so weak that for

ROTARIANS HEAR INSTRUCTIVE ADDRESSES

With Rev. J. A. Stevenson as their chairman, the professional men of the Santa Ana Rotary Club yesterday presented one of the best programs of the year, at James's cafe. The earlier part of the program was taken up with the usual round of energetic vocal endeavor on the part of the membership, with Rotarian Gustlin at the piano. Walter Vandermast, chairman of the committee in charge of the club's work for the Red Cross, had a gratifying report on the progress of the work.

The first speaker, introduced by Chairman Stevenson, was Mrs. Paul Wright, matron at the Day Nursery. Mrs. Wright has the honor of being the first woman to address the local Rotary Club. She very modestly described the work which she and her assistants are doing.

The Day Nursery in Santa Ana was established, and is still supported, chiefly by the Ebel Society, according to Mrs. Wright. The principal function of the nursery, she explained, is to provide a suitable place for the children of mothers who work during the day, but children of certain ages are also cared for, as a matter of accommodation to parents. A fee of 25 cents a day for this service, is asked from those who are able to pay. Used clothing is collected and distributed from the nursery for a nominal charge, and there is other work among the children and poorer classes of citizens in which the organization is active. The Rotary Club pledged its full support of the work.

Telle Probation Work.
Paul Wright, county probation officer, who followed Mrs. Wright on the program, had much of importance to say about the shortcomings and the virtues of the present system of handling juvenile delinquents. He emphasized the importance of preventative rather than curative measures and gave it as his opinion that the average boy and girl gathers more harmful impressions from bad associations and improper home life, than is absorbed from books or newspapers or motion pictures of the suggestive sort. He declared that the average child needs sympathy rather than abuse, but advocated the good old-fashioned application of the razor strap as a heroic treatment for some cases of waywardness. The best efforts, and closest attention, of the parents should be given the child in the ages from ten to fifteen, the speaker said, as these are the ages during which most of the good or bad impressions are made upon the youthful mind. The character of the child as built up in the home, according to Wright, is the greatest safeguard against undesirable citizenship in later years. Wright left the impression with his audience, without so referring to it, that he is engaged in a work of very great importance.

Beach Men Drop In.
The third speech yesterday came to the Rotarians as a decidedly pleasant surprise. Ten Rotarians from Long Beach dropped in on the meeting as a penalty for being absent from their home club last week. It is a part of Rotary religion to make the attendance as near perfect as possible, and these men were present yesterday, as visitors, to complete a perfect record for their club. Phil M. Swaffield, attorney, one of the visitors, was asked to talk on "something about Rotary." In a ten-minute speech, he delivered a series of broadsides, which he punctuated with personal remarks about the club members, and summed the whole Rotary idea up as a practical application of the Golden Rule. The program next week will be handled by a committee consisting of A. V. Napier, Walter Vandermast, Herbert Rankin, W. H. Spurgeon, Jr., and Ed Yost. The program will deal with publicity.

CARRANZISTAS PLAN ANTI-OBREGON FIGHT

MEXICO CITY, Nov. 17.—The Carranzistas have raised large sums for publications which will make a fight on the new Mexican government and the new men in power. It is reported here that $2,000,000 has been raised for a newspaper to be published in San Antonio, Tex. This journal will openly and violently attack Mexico's present rulers. Another publication will be "La Vanguardia" which will be printed here under the direction of Ernest Hidalgo, who was private secretary to the late President Carranza.

SAN DIEGO BECOMING BIG SEAFOOD CENTER

SAN DIEGO, Nov. 17.—More than 29,000,000 pounds of seafoods were brought into the port of San Diego by the port's fishing fleet between Jan. 1 and Nov. 10, 1920, according to a statement made by A. L. Manahan, state fish commissioner, on duty here. The exact catch totaled 29,379,232 pounds. Manahan believes these figures give a graphic illustration of the extent of the fishing industry here.

The chief items of seafood handled by the various canneries and fresh fish houses of San Diego during the ten months of the present year, according to Manahan's official report, were as follows:

Sardines, 12,055,843 pounds; albacore, 2,149,158 pounds; lobsters, 767,172 pounds; skipjack, 2,993,439 pounds; tuna, 4,002,990 pounds; yellowtail, 488,339 pounds.

SINGING FEATURES BROTHERHOOD MEET

Singing, led by Elmer Heidt, county Boy Scout commissioner, was a feature of the meeting of the Presbyterian Men's Brotherhood, at a banquet and program held at the Presbyterian church last night. Seventy-six men were present.

Heidt also sang two solos, being accompanied by Harry Garstang at the organ. Later, Heidt addressed the men on the boy scout organization.

Professor H. G. Nelson of the Junior high school gave an interesting address in which he contrasted the material progress of the world with

JOKING WITH JUDGE IS COSTLY PASTIME

NEW YORK, Nov. 17.—Theodore Marwaski was on trial for disorderly conduct before Judge A. H. Kohler in Westbury, L. I., but the case was dismissed for lack of proof. Theodore at once became indignant and remarked loudly that he had a few things to say.

"Say them," advised Judge Kohler. Marwaski said them so loud and in such an unusual language that the progress along educational and spiritual lines. Rev. J. A. Stevenson talked on matters of interest to the Presbyterian denomination.

The dinner, which was greatly enjoyed by the members of the brotherhood, was prepared by members of the Ladies Aid Society.

Judge told him he would be fined for contempt.

"Go ahead," said Marwaski. "Fine me $51!"

"All right," said Judge Kohler. "Make it $10!" cried Marwaski. "I'll accommodate you," said the judge.

"Make it $100," Marwaski interrupted. "I can't, but I can give you a jail sentence," Judge Kohler went on.

"Oh!" said Marwaski, "I guess I'd better be going!" He started to leave, but an attendant reminded him that he had forgotten to pay the $50.

"Oh, I was only joking," said Marwaski. "I wasn't," said Judge Kohler. Theodore paid.

Beginners' class meets Monday and Thursday at 7 p. m., at home of Mrs. Olive Lopez, 519 West Fifth. Terms $4 for eight lessons, in advance.

BREAD LINE TO FEED CRIMEA REFUGEES

CONSTANTINOPLE, Nov. 17.—The fate of thousands of civilians left in Sebastopol in the Bolshevik triumph worried the European diplomats here today.

General Wrangel arrived yesterday with nearly 20,000 troops. He had no plans to announce.

French representatives confirmed reports that they had threatened Red authorities with reprisals if harm came to the civilians.

Military evacuation of the entire Crimean peninsula was complete today, but thousands of civilians were left in Yalta, Theodosia and other cities.

Soup kitchens have been installed here to provide food for the most needy refugees. Military barracks belonging to the French army were filled with homeless men and women arriving from Sebastopol.

The over-crowded city could provide little space for the new-comers, especially those who could not pay, and thousands still occupied the ships which removed them from the Crimea.

There was fear among those who escaped that the Red troops, intoxicated by their success, would break away from the restraint of their commanders and pillage the ancient towns, in which priceless goods remained.

The evacuated cities were reported to have seethed with panic in the last hours before the Reds swarmed into them.

Wounded men straggled back from the front, begging for assistance in reaching surgical help. Men wearing their best clothing and dragging boxes and bundles of hastily collected valuables crowded in the direction of the wharves, seeking passage. Women and children were crushed in the crowds flocking toward the waterfront. As the ships edged away from the pier, throngs of deserted refugees gazed dumbly after the fortunate ones. A few set out in launches and small boats for Black Sea islands. The rest turned back to face the incoming Bolshevik troops.

FIVE KINGS, FOUR ACES TANGLE—PAGE MR. HOYLE, PLEASE

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 17.—It's a sad tale, mates, but unless five kings will beat four aces Manuel J. Fernandez is mighty likely to go to jail.

But, in any event, there is a ray of hope, for the decision may tell the poker playing world what's the high hand when the Joker's wild.

It happened like this. Fernandez and his friends, Benjamin Santos and Miguel Olympus sat down for a friendly game.

There came a time when four natural aces smiled in the hand of Olympus. Fernandez opened the pot, Olympus raised and the war was on. The pot was over $500 when Olympus called and showed his hand.

"That's a fine hand," said Fernandez, "but here's five kings." He showed four monarchs and the Joker.

Now, Olympus doesn't figure that five kings ever could sit on a single throne and he had Fernandez arrested for robbery. Police Judge McAtee pondered over the tale. He passed it up to lawyers. They thought that perhaps Mr. Hoyle knew. So the case has been continued for a week while the bailiff pages Hoyle.

L. A. MAN TO LEAD NATIONS' ATHLETES

NEW YORK, Nov. 17.—Autocratic domination of amateur athletics in the United States by the New York Athletic Club and a group of conservatives is at an end.

Paying heed to the demands of the "soviet of athletics," formed last summer in Antwerp before the Olympic games, the Amateur Athletic Union has decided upon a change of faces and politics among the governors of athletics.

The "insurgent ticket" headed by Robert S. Weaver, of the Los Angeles Athletic Club, was elected in its entirety over the choice of the New York dictators. Justice Bartow S. Weeks, an office holder in the union for years, was defeated with the rest of the "old guard."

In addition, a committee composed of William C. Prout, Jeremiah Mahoney and Charles B. Lynch was appointed to investigate the charges made by the Olympic athletes against the committee in charge of the American team in Antwerp.

This committee will also seek to learn the method employed by the committee in picking the American team.

Charges made by the rifle and pistol team and the oarsmen that they had to pay their expenses out of their own pockets, although funds had come from other sources, also will be investigated.

SELLS-FLOTO CIRCUS UNDER NEW OWNERS

DENVER, Nov. 17.—H. H. Tammen and F. G. Bonfils of Denver quit the circus business when they sold the Sells-Floto Circus, which they have owned many years, to Jerry Mugivan of Denver. Mugivan is the owner of the Hagenbeck-Wallace Circus, the John Robinson Shows, the Howes London and the Yankee-Robinson Circus. The consideration was not made public.

CHICAGO GIRLS GIVE HARDING BIG GOBBLER

CHICAGO, Nov. 17.—The proudest turkey in the world strutted in pride around his fellow birds today. He has been selected to be the Thanksgiving dinner for President-elect Harding. He is a thirty-eight pound supreme Illinois bronze. He will be sent to New Orleans in a few days and will go from there to Panama on the same boat with the next President. He is the gift of the Harding Girls Club of Morris & Co. President Wilson's Thanksgiving turkeys have all been sent from Maryland.

All large American ports are planning great improvements in channels, wharves and increased cargo handling facilities.

ACIDS IN STOMACH CAUSE INDIGESTION

Create Gas, Sourness and Pain How To Treat.

Medical authorities state that nearly nine-tenths of the cases of stomach trouble, indigestion, sourness, burning, gas, bloating, nausea, etc., are due to an excess of hydrochloric acid in the stomach and not as some believe to a lack of digestive juices. The delicate stomach lining is irritated, digestion is delayed and food sours, causing the disagreeable symptoms which every stomach sufferer knows so well.

Artificial digestants are not needed in such cases and may do real harm. Dry-laying aside all digestive aids and instead get from any druggist a few ounces of Bismarck's Magnesia and take a teaspoonful in a quart glass of water right after eating. This sweetens the stomach, prevents the formation of excess acid and there is no sourness, gas or pain. Bismarck's Magnesia (in powder or tablet form—never liquid or milk) is harmless to the stomach, inexpensive to take and is the most efficient form of magnesia for stomach purposes. It is used by thousands of people who enjoy their meals with no more fear of indigestion.

WILSON CABLES GREETING TO ASSEMBLY

WASHINGTON, Nov. 17.—President Wilson in a message to Paul Hymans, president of the league of nations assembly, today expressed "the hope that the labors of the assembly will be of immense value to the whole civilized world."

The president's message was in reply to one from Hymans in behalf of the assembly "praising Wilson's work toward the establishment of the league."

The president's message follows: "The greetings so graciously sent me by the assembly of the league of nations through you have gratified me very deeply indeed. I am indeed proud to be considered to have played any part in promoting the concord of nations with the establishment of such an instrumentality as the league, to whose increasing influence and success I look forward with increasing confidence. Permit me to extend by personal greetings to the assembly, if they will be gracious enough to receive them, together with an expression of my hope and belief that their labors will be of immense value to the whole civilized world."

The message of Hymans to President Wilson follows: "The assembly of the league of nations by unanimous vote has instructed me to send you its warmest greetings and to express its earnest wishes that you may be speedily restored to complete health. The assembly recognizes that you have done perhaps more than any other man to lay the foundations of the league. It feels confident that the present meeting will greatly advance those principles of co-operation between all nations which you have done so much to promote."

QUESTION F SECRECY WORRIES DELEGATES

GENEVA, Nov. 17.—Secret discussion of league of nations affairs was believed far from assured when the assembly opened today's meeting.

Yesterday's decision that the six commissions which will thresh all questions submitted to the assembly may hold secret or public sessions as the members please was expected to meet renewed opposition today.

The business today included reports on the work of the league council, which settled many matters before the assembly was called. Those decisions included the Malmeldy-Dupen plebiscite and the Polish Lithuanian agreement which later was shattered.

Many delegates arrived here primed for attacks on the work of the council.

FALL PROVES FATAL

VISALIA, Nov. 17.—Luther Lime, 21, an ex-soldier, a resident of Bakersfield, fell from a freight train and was killed. Two companions, George Stewart, Portland, Ore., and M. ## GRAIN ELEVATOR AT OAKLAND IS TAKEN OVER BY BUREAU

Millions of Dollars to Be Saved Farmers Annually, Is Belief

WOODROUGH EXPLAINS

Growers', Consumers' Costs to Be Reduced Through New Move, Is View

"One of the big accomplishments of the farm bureau movement in California is the formation of a million dollar corporation to take over the newly constructed 2,000,000 bushel grain elevator of the Western Milling company at Oakland," said H. B. Woodrough, of Costa Mesa, Farm Bureau representative from Orange county, who has returned from Berkeley where the directors of the California Farm Bureau Federation held their annual meeting.

Woodrough has reported to the directors of the Orange County Farm Bureau that the Federation is lining up stronger than ever.

"In starting out its second year of existence some very important projects will be launched, including legislation, marketing and education," Woodrough continued.

"The taking over of the terminal at Oakland marks one of the most revolutionary and forward steps ever taken by farmers in California. It points to the solution of many of the grain men's problems and the reduction in the cost of production and marketing of grain, being alike beneficial to the farmer and consumer."

"This transaction will save to the farmers of California an annual bill of 6 or 7 million dollars for sacks alone. The terminal elevator is designed to handle bulk grain from feeder elevators located in the valleys on lines of transportation. It will permit the farmer to deal directly with the consumer of his products. It will make possible the elimination of speculation in farm products and make possible a reduction in costs to the grower and consumer."

TWO COUNTIES FILLED ENLISTMENT QUOTAS

SAN DIEGO, Nov. 17.—San Diego and Imperial counties were the first in California to reach 100 per cent in the enlistment of native sons to man the U. S. S. California, according to a complimentary letter received from Capt. C. W. Cole, inspector for the western navy district, by Com. Harold Jones, naval recruiting officer for the local district.

San Diego's quota was 37 and Imperial Valley seven. The total for the entire San Diego district was 50. Only three more youths are needed to complete the district's quota, as 47 had been enlisted for the California up to noon yesterday.

Capt. Cole, in complimenting Com. Jones and the local recruiting force, declared that San Diego led every other district in the state in recruiting for the Golden State battleship.

More than 2900 men were enlisted in the navy last week throughout the country, Com. Jones was advised yesterday by the navy department. This is the largest peace time recruiting record for any one week in the history of the navy.

We Wonder

WE WONDER HOW MANY FARMERS treat their BOYS AND GIRLS as partners IN SOME FARM project AND GIVE THEM some INDUCEMENT to become INTERESTED IN what goes ON AT HOME. BOYS ARE human—and girls, too. AND THE PRIDE of ownership IS STRONG IN them just as IN THE OLDER folks. AND IF A boy or girl had interest IN 10 HENS or 2 cows OR A QUARTER acre of oranges WE BET they would work HARDER AND FIND OUT new things FOR THEMSELVES AND TAKE MORE interest IN the FARM AND decide that IT ISN'T SO bad after all. AND IF WE want our BOYS AND GIRLS to quit FLOCKING TO the cities we ought TO SHOW them why THE FARM IS BETTER SO MAYBE this plan would help. ANYHOW, WE wonder.

STUDENTS OF ORANGE COUNTY ARE ENROLLED

Five hundred sixty-two students are enrolled at the University of California Farm, Davis, according to Dean H. E. Norman. Thirty-six students come from nineteen other states, twenty-two students from eleven foreign countries, while 504 students come from forty-four counties in California. In addition there are 261 short course students registered in special work in tractors, general agriculture, poultry husbandry and dairy manufacture. Counties with the larger number of students are Alameda, Fresno, Los Angeles, Marin, Orange, Sacramento, San Diego, San Francisco, San Joaquin, Santa Barbara, Santa Clara and Yolo.

LAW FOR SHIPMENT OF ORANGES QUOTED

"The season is somewhat earlier than last year and it seems desirable at this time to point out the requirements of the Fruit and Vegetable Standardization Law for this commodity," says a bulletin of the State Department of Agriculture.

"Oranges which are substantially or at least seventy per cent colored at the time of picking shall be deemed properly matured for shipment or sale, irrespective of analysis of the juice. No oranges are permitted to be shipped to points in the United States or Canada which have not attained at least twenty-five per cent yellow or orange color before picking, and such stock shall be deemed properly matured for shipment or sale when the juice contains soluble solids equal to or in excess of eight parts to every part of acid contained in the juice, the acidity of the juice to be calculated as citric acid without water or crystallization.

"Oranges when packed, shipped, delivered for shipment, offered for sale or sold, shall be virtually free from insect and fungus pests, and from other serious defects. This means that the total defects shall not exceed ten per cent in any one package."

"Shipments to foreign countries other than the Dominion of Canada do not have to meet the above requirements if made after the first day of November."

"To summarize: As far as color is concerned, oranges that show seventy per cent color do not have to meet the test. All other oranges must have attained at least twenty-five per cent yellow or orange color before picking and in addition must meet the 8:1 test. Early picking of green fruit and sweating for color should be discouraged. Such stock should be tested carefully by county commissioners in orange shipping sections."

6 GARDEN GROVE BOYS LAUNCH NEW PIG CLUB

Youngsters at Cypress and Centralia Meet Friday to Organize

Formation of the Garden Grove Pig Club by six boys, and the response in other parts of the county to the efforts of Assistant Farm Advisor J. W. Waters, reflects the interest which has developed in the Agricultural Club Movement instituted some time ago by the Orange County Farm Bureau.

The members of the Garden Grove club, with the aid of two of their fathers, made the selection of six purebred Poland China pigs in Los Angeles county. The weanlings were a uniform lot and in good thrifty growing condition, so there will be no handicaps to overcome. Their dam cost $500, and their sire $2500.

The club was organized by Assistant Farm Advisor Waters, who will assist the boys in learning to feed the porkers and to carry on their club. The members are John Flitz, Emerson Stanley, Charles Bisset, James Parks, Paul Dozier and Paul Smith.

A joint meeting of the boys and girls of the Cypress and Centralia schools has been arranged for next Friday, November 19, at 2:30 o'clock, at the Cypress school building. At this meeting Waters will explain agricultural club work, in an effort to create the organization of clubs for the raising of poultry or pigs, or for a garden project.

The Parent-Teachers association will have a meeting, following the school assembly, at which the agricultural club movement will be discussed. The interest of the parents in the project is considered important in view of the assistance they might render to the boys and girls.

GROWERS OF LETTUCE ENTER ORGANIZATION

CALIFORNIA, Nov. 17.—Announcement is made by James P. Britt, deputy state market director, that the lettuce growers of Imperial Valley have been organized into a co-operative marketing association.

At a meeting held in Calipatria a few days ago, a permanent organization was formed, to be known as the Imperial Valley Vegetable & Melon Growers' association, and six directors were named to act in conjunction with a representative of the state market director. Judge Willis I. Morrison of Los Angeles is preparing the by-laws and articles of incorporation for the association, and will file them with the secretary of state within a few days.

J. E. O'Neill of Calipatria has been chosen president of the association, and a manager has been employed, who already has established eastern connections so that the members of the association will be enabled to market this year's crop. It is proposed to make the association county-wide.

Britt says a large acreage has been signed, and that packing sheds will be erected at the various towns in Imperial Valley, and that through the medium of the co-operative marketing association, which is composed exclusively of growers, the members will be enabled to directly market their crop, thus eliminating many distributors.

Knauf and Faul, pioneer barbers, have opened handsome tonsorial parlors in Room 236, W. H. Spurgeon building; elevator and stairway entrance, and are now ready for business. Three barbers and manicure service.

CAL. MARKETING EXCHANGE PLAN IS GAINING

17 Counties In State Are Already In Line to Co-operate

The directors of the Orange County Farm Bureau have been advised through the secretary of the State Federation of Farm Bureaus that definite plans are under way for a state marketing exchange to meet the need of better returns to the producer, as well as the need of lessening the cost to the consumer.

George H. Sawyer, of Stanislaus county, who is an active director of the new marketing exchange, in a recent interview said:

"In perfecting the co-operative county marketing exchanges over the state the sale of grain and other farm products will go forward at minimum expense. Final distribution of such products will be reached through a state marketing exchange created by a federation of the county units. In all the operations, middlemen costs will be reduced to the minimum and the control of the product will remain largely in the hands of the producer until turned over to the actual user. At present seventeen counties have either perfected or are completing their marketing programs."

Cites Factors.

"Under the present methods of supplying the world with agricultural products, the wool grown by the farmer brings him less than what the production costs, though the price of clothing remains high. The cotton grower at this moment faces bankruptcy, while cotton goods continue to go at almost war prices. The grain growers of the United States, under present marketing manipulations, stand to lose more than two billion dollars on this year's crop, though the price of bread remains high and we have almost forgotten the 5-cent loaf. Production of mutton and beef is unprofitable almost uniformly, though meat to the consumer has not been reduced."

"The campaign just launched for the handling of farm products co-operatively is the latest development in the farming industry. Over the entire United States under the new and unified movement led by the American Farm Bureau Federation, farmers are organizing their grain, livestock, and other industries on a co-operative basis. The basic strength in the program is the co-operative spirit which pervades and which has been developed through the farm bureau movement everywhere. The farmers of the state are together in this economic betterment and the consumer will learn early that the fundamental principles involved will merit their unanimous co-operation."

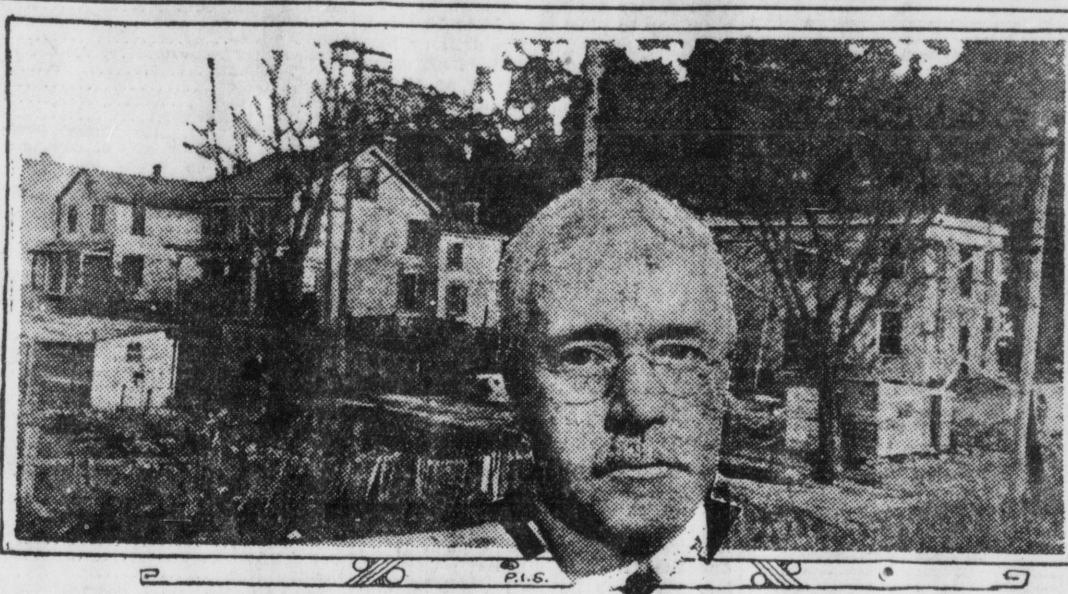

Sees Opposition.

"It is fully appreciated that carrying through the plans as developed will meet with organized opposition in some of our trade centers. The same conditions arise, however, in every movement for economic betterment. California farmers are convinced regarding the soundness of their position in undertaking to perfect their products for distribution and in organizing to place themselves nearer to those who are dependent upon the products of the soil."

MILLIONAIRE BUYS N. Y. TOWN TO RID PLACE OF UNDESIRABLES

Sparta, New York, a village of 200 population, is now owned by Frank Vanderlip, former president of the National City bank of New York. Sparta adjoins the exclusive residential district, Scarborough-on-Hudson, where Vanderlip lives. Much complaint has come from the wealthy residents of Scarborough about Sparta, where, build modern tenements and get some nice people to settle there. The above picture shows some of the ramshackle dwellings of Sparta. The insert picture is that of Vanderlip.

NATIONAL BODY PROGRESSES AS TO MARKETING

The following has been issued from the Farm Bureau office, Santa Ana:

"The committee of seventeen appointed by the American Farm Bureau federation, and hereafter to be known as the farmers' marketing committee of seventeen, held its first meetings on October 4 and 5 in Chicago and effected a permanent organization."

"On request, President Howard of the American Farm Bureau federation appointed C. H. Gustafson, of Lincoln, Nebraska, chairman, and A. L. Middleton of Eagle Grove, Iowa, vice-chairman. Later, William G. Eckhardt of Chicago was elected treasurer, and O. M. Kile of Washington, D. C. and C. E. Gunders of Chicago, secretary and assistant secretary, respectively."

"The outstanding feature of the meeting was the unanimity with which all agreed that each must sink his own individual, pet ideas as to what marketing plan was to be adopted, and search for the underlying facts upon which a sound and co-operative marketing system might be based. All appreciated that the committee had a tremendous job on hand—the biggest job any farmers' committee has ever before confronted, yet the feeling was that a safe, sure, and satisfactory solution would be found and put into operation."

"The work of the committee will be subdivided, with special assignments to small groups of committee members for investigation and reports on such topics as co-operative marketing methods, cost of marketing, storage and transportation, consumption and export, and finance. The work of the group that will investigate co-operative marketing methods will be subdivided into four smaller groups, each group to study and report at the next meeting upon the co-operative methods of special sections of the United States or in connection with particular commodities."

MISS CURNICK MADE AUXILIARY LEADER

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., Nov. 17.—The appointment of Miss Pauline Curnick, formerly personnel and employment director for a large eastern industrial establishment and during the war a leader in numerous welfare activities for the benefit of sick and disabled soldiers, sailors and marines, as executive secretary in charge of affairs of the Women's Auxiliary of the American Legion, was announced recently at legion national headquarters.

Miss Curnick's appointment is one of the first steps in the plan of F. W. Calbraith, Jr., national commander, to carry out the free ride policy which the Cleveland convention directed the new administration to follow with regard to the Legion's affiliated women's organizations. All ready plans are under way for the women to hold their own departmental conventions in three states, Illinois, Minnesota and Indiana, within the next few weeks, and intensive campaigns for the building up of the auxiliary are being arranged for all over the country.

The women relatives of the ex-service men probably will hold their own national convention early next spring, the Cleveland convention having authorized this procedure as soon as the department meetings have been held in ten states.

Miss Curnick is the daughter of the Rev. P. C. Curnick, field secretary of the Northwestern conference, Methodist Episcopal hospitals, with whom she makes her home in Indianapolis.

WOMAN ESCAPES TRIAL. PAW. Paw, Mich., Nov. 17.—The charge of manslaughter against Mrs. Sarah Tabor, 82 years old, who was accused of causing the death of her daughter Maude Tabor Virgo, will be dismissed, according to a statement by Prosecuting Attorney Horace Adams.

PROFESSOR REVIEWS CONDITIONS ABROAD

F. W. Woll, professor of animal nutrition in the College of Agriculture of the University of California, who returned today to the university after a six months' leave of absence spent in study and travel in England and Norway, in which latter country he received his early education, issued the following statement relative to conditions abroad:

"Labor conditions in both countries are unsettled. There are many strikes. However, the situation seems likely to improve, since the people more and more are coming to see that work alone can save the countries from the evils that followed in the wake of the world war. Limitation of the number of students admitted both in the elementary agricultural schools and in the college of agriculture was a striking feature of Norway's educational system. Rigid examinations held at the opening of the school year keep out half or two-thirds of those who apply."

STATE FEDERATION OFFICERS ELECTED

At the annual meeting of the California Farm Bureau federation just held the following executive officers were elected to serve during 1921: President, W. H. Walker, Willows; vice-president, R. B. Peters, Devore; secretary-treasurer, W. H. Heileman, Orland; directors to the American Farm Bureau federation, W. H. Walker and R. B. Peters; members of the house of delegates of the American Farm Bureau federation, Geo. H. Sawyer, of Waterford.

The following were elected to represent the Regional zones in the California Farm Bureau federation, and to act as the executive department of the federation: District No. 1—V. H. Craig, San Fernando. District No. 2—Fred J. Hart, Salinas. District No. 3, J. W. Schmitz, Madera. District No. 4, Geo. H. Sawyer, Waterford. District No. 5, J. M. Moore, Inwood. District No. 6, A. Teasdale, Auburn. District No. 7—Sheridan W. Baker, Santa Rosa. The president and vice-president are members ex-officio of the executive department.

The directors of the federation endorsed a legislative program both national and state, and adopted an advanced program of work for the coming year.

The directors went on record recommending to the counties that they put their annual membership dues in the county farm bureau on a $5 basis.

Outstanding projects relating to a strong horticultural department and a state-wide sugar beet growers department, were adopted. Getting behind the University Farm at Davis for its development was put into the program of work for the coming year.

The Grain Growers' department reported the completion of plans for operating a 2-million bushel elevator at the Oakland tidewater, and the installation of country bulk grain elevators throughout the grain districts of the state. The plans involve over a million dollar expenditure and fit into the plans being worked out by the committee of 17 of the American Farm Bureau federation.

The Marketing department reported that seventeen counties were adopting the farm bureau marketing exchanges and that the state exchange program was rapidly being completed for the federation of county exchanges. The state of Oregon and Nevada are adopting California marketing plans.

President Walker and Directors Peters and Sawyer will represent California at the annual American Farm Bureau federation meeting at Indianapolis in early December.

TELL HOW COLOR OF MILK IS PRODUCED

The following has been issued from the office of the Farm Bureau:

"The several physical properties that have been extensively studied in milk hygiene—such as color, odor and taste—occupy an important field."

"The color of milk is generally white and opaque, with either a yellowish or bluish tinge. The calcium caseinate is responsible for the white color, whereas the opacity is due to the combined calcium caseinate and fat content. The opacity of milk depends upon the quality and size of the fat globules, the opacity being less when the fat globules are large."

"The yellowish tinge often observed in milk is due to a pigment in the fat content, known as carotin. This pigment is more pronounced in certain breeds of cattle, for example in the Guernseys. A low percentage of fat content brings the bluish tinge. However, the bluish tinge is sometimes associated with skimming and watering, but, on the other hand, any normal milk in thin layers always has the characteristic bluish tinge."

"There is a slight odor to normal milk, resembling somewhat the exhalations from the cow's skin, while it also has a sweetish taste. A salty, bitter, or a rancid animal-like taste may be found in the milk of an individual cow during the colostrum period, or near the end of the lactation period. A similar taste may be noticed also in the milk from cows in an advanced state of pregnancy as well as after abortion, in cases of mastitis (garet) as well as during digestive disturbances."

"In case there are a number of 'strikers' in a herd a like condition may be present in the milk. Milk which has a certain degree of acidity will act upon rusty containers, forming iron lactate, which gives to the milk a bitter astringent taste. 'Rusty' milk vessels as well as those not rinsed free from soap powder often produce in milk a 'fishy' taste."

WILL PLAN BIG DRIVE TO GAIN GOAL OF 2000 MEMBERS

Bureau Chiefs to Meet In Santa Ana Friday Afternoon

BIG PROJECTS LOOMING

Groundwork of Systematic Canvass In County Is to Be Laid

Determined to lay the groundwork of a campaign which will result in reaching a goal of 2000 members for the Orange County Farm Bureau, officers of the organization, as well as the membership committee, will meet at the Farm Bureau office here Friday afternoon to work out plan for a systematic canvass of the county, early in January.

Exclusive of the recently organized farm center at Cypress, the number of whose membership is not available, there are 989 members in the Orange County Farm Bureau. There are farm centers at Anaheim, Buena Park, Fullerton, El Modena, Garden Grove, Harper, La Habra, Cypress, San Juan Capistrano, Tustin, Villa Park, West Orange, Wintersburg and Yorba Linda.

Favor Increased Dues.

The directors of the county organization have gone on record officially as favoring the increase of dues from $2 to $5 per year. The centers at Tustin, Anaheim and Cypress have already endorsed this action by the directors, and it is expected that the remainder of the centers will fall into line.

It is felt that increased dues are imperative because of the funds which will be needed during the coming year in working out projects for the interests of the farmer.

In 1921 a strong legislative program will be carried out by the State Federation of Farm Bureaus and by the Orange county organization. It is to meet expenses incurred by various committees and delegates who give their time for the good of the farming industry that increased funds are being sought.

Among the matters which are to be actively taken up during the coming year are water legislation, power tariff, co-operative marketing and transportation.

The meeting Friday afternoon is scheduled to begin at 2 o'clock. Those on the membership committee are H. B. Woodrough, Costa Mesa; Murray Horne, Huntington Beach; Carl Nichols, Garden Grove and I. L. Marchant, Tustin.

John Deere Built It For The Fordson

We can furnish you with the plow that John Deere built especially for the Fordson tractor.

It is made of New Process John Deere steel.

That's why it is extra light and strong.

It's the lightest tractor plow you ever saw—weighs less than the average horse-drawn sulky.

It is tremendously strong—beams are guaranteed not to bend or break—all frame connections are riveted—no loose joints—no give anywhere—it's the plow you can depend on to stand the strains of utilizing Fordson power under all plowing conditions.

Because of light weight and keen scouring qualities, it pulls extremely light. It's a real fuel saver. See it at work once, and you will appreciate how light it pulls.

Its correct line of draft, when hitched to the Fordson assures ideal penetration.

Its genuine John Deere bottoms scour, wear well and make good seed beds.

Its quick detachable shares are strong and close fitting. Loosen one nut to remove a share; tighten the same nut and the share is on tight.

Its simple, strong power lift works perfectly. Lifting mechanism moves only when the plow is being raised or lowered—no useless wear.

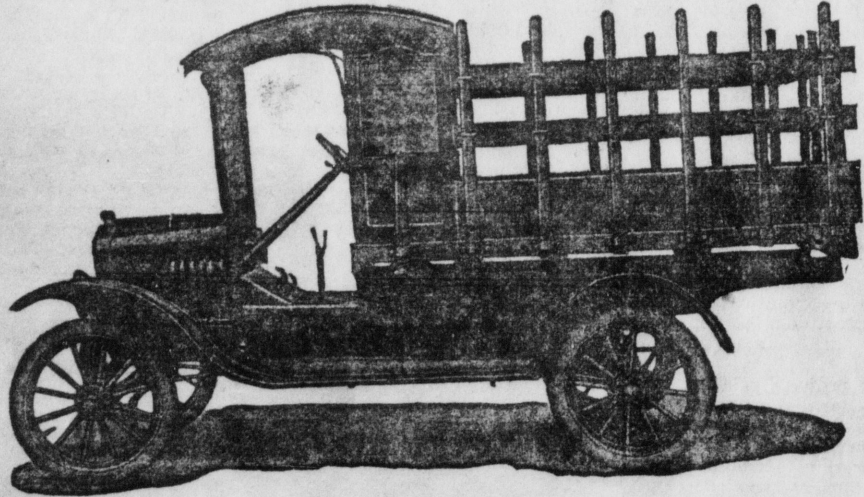

If you are planning to buy a Fordson be sure to see this plow. Ask us to show you the John Deere No. 40—the plow that fits the Fordson.

CO-OPERATION WILL CUT FARMING COSTS

Greater co-operation between farmers and bankers will cut the cost of food production and increase farm profits, asserts George A. Woodford in an article on "The Relation of Banking to the Business of Farming" in the current issue of Farm Mechanics magazine.

"Farm life without the drudgery, farm life with all modern conveniences, farm life that is more attractive, interesting and profitable is within our reach," says Woodford. "Present day methods of farming with power enable one man in a 10-hour day to plow from 10 to 12 acres, cultivate 14 to 20, disc, drill or harrow 35 to 40 acres and do all other field work proportionately as fast."

"Transportation furnished by the motor truck is rapidly becoming a necessity to the successful farmer. The automobile brings the city nearer, with all the advantages, both of pleasure and profit, that result."

"The efficient farmer raises 25 bushels of wheat where the others grow 15 and in this way one acre is made to do the work of two, yet the labor required is scarcely increased; in fact by the use of the best machinery, it is cut in half. "But you may say all this costs money, and the average farmer cannot afford to make use of the advantages offered him. There is one answer that covers the whole question. The farm must be put on a business basis."

"The successful business man who sees an opportunity to make one dollar produce two doesn't pass it up because he does not have the dollar, nor does he wait until he can save it. He borrows it, puts it to use, and in addition to his own gain, the banker who loans it makes a profit, the community takes a step forward and the nation progresses."

"When farming-with-power units have proven their ability to pay for themselves, often in one year, why do without them just because the cash is not on hand to pay for them? Under such a policy one is likely never to have the money."

"The man who puts his farm on a business basis, who studies the possibilities before him, and plans to make the most of them, who learns that business thoroughly, and presents the banker with the opportunity to work with him in the development of his farm and the community, will get the cash and the co-operation of the real bank."

Light stocks at terminal markets. It was generally believed it would take but little buying to tighten up the market. Mills and exporters were buyers at Kansas City, Belgium was credited with buying 600,000 to 1,000,000 bushels of wheat at the seaboard, and hedges were removed at Chicago. Many leading local professionals were over on the bull side during the day and are talking higher prices.

Corn and oats markets were dominated by the action of wheat. Trade was light and mainly of a local character. Prices averaged higher, but December turned easy toward the last and declined to 5 1/2 cents under May, closing at a fractional loss while other deliveries were fractionally higher, December oats gained 1/4 cent on the May.

GROVE PEOPLE HAVE BIRTHDAY PARTIES

GARDEN GROVE, Nov. 17.—Evelyn Jean Edmunds entertained a number of schoolmates and friends in honor of her sixth birthday on Saturday, Nov. 13. A number of games were enjoyed and dainty refreshments were served. The color scheme carried out was pink, green and white. A birthday cake with six green candles made a pretty center for the table. Ice cream, cake, cookies and candy were enjoyed by the kiddies. The children present were Margaret Magill, Louise Courtney, Marjorie Urwick, Lemmie Hale, Betty Pearson, Helen Geotsch, Roland Geotsch and Evelyn Jean Edmunds.

A birthday party was given for Frances Fry, Saturday afternoon, in honor of her seventh birthday. Outdoor games were played by the children, until called into the darkened dining room, which was lighted only by seven candles on the large cake. Refreshments of ice cream, cakes and candies were served to Myra Lake, Winifred Schneider, Grace Jenkins, Ethel and Evelyn Launders, Vivian Ladd, Letty Harper, Frances Hammonree, Velma King, Marjorie Launders, Stanley Wheeler, Floyd Mills, Ernest Zimmerman, Orville King, Claude Barnett, John Harkness, Oliver Ladd and Cecil Horowitz.

Saturday morning a horse owned by Mexican became frightened and caused a runaway. The horse and wagon were stopped in front of Fulson's grocery store. There were two children, one about five years old and the other eight, in the back of the wagon. When the horse started to run, the older boy jumped out and the smaller started to follow, but the horse ran so fast the child was afraid to let go and hung on, running after the wagon. He fell off near the end of the block, cutting his head and face badly. He was brought back to Scott's store where his mother was trading and the wounds dressed by Miss Hobson, the community nurse.

The Baptist Missionary Circle will meet with George Tyler, Wednesday afternoon.

Harry Niles, of Portland, Oregon, visited his uncle, Tom Niles, Saturday. Mr. Niles has been on the police force in Portland for eleven years and came to Los Angeles to take back the prisoner, Burrows, who forged an $1800 check. Mr. Niles is a cousin of Mrs. Beulah Urwick. They had not seen each other for 25 years.

Mrs. Fred Harrison, who formerly lived in Garden Grove, has moved to their beautiful new home in the Heights, where they entertained the following guests all day Friday: Mrs. Milo Allen and daughters, Marjorie and Gertrude, Mrs. H. A. Bodenheimer, Mrs. Frank Rogers, Mrs. P. M. Magnusson and Mrs. Edward Dozier and little son Bobbie.

Malcolm Wharton, son of Dr. and Mrs. C. C. Violett, who is attending the Oregon Agricultural college at Corvallis, was fortunate enough to win the most prizes in the farm exhibits held there last week. No prizes were given except where there was competition. There were ten other exhibit districts and Malcolm won six first prizes for having the finest exhibit of walnuts, oranges, lemons and peppers. The ribbons won were sent to Mrs. C. C. Violett and they are on exhibit at the farm advisor's office, in Santa Ana.

Dr. C. C. Violett made a visit to his niece, Miss Willis, at Hollywood, Monday night.

F. C. Thompson spent Friday in Los Angeles.

Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Price entertained at a dinner Sunday, at the New Hotel, Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Kinney and Elenore Baldwin of Los Angeles; Mrs. Stella Valle and son, Robert, and Miss Hobson.

D. C. Hogan and family spent Sunday at the Orange County Park.

Mr. and Mrs. B. A. Wisner and children enjoyed a hunting trip near Capistrano, Sunday.

Dr. and Mrs. C. C. Violett enjoyed a surprise visit Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Charles Worley of Los Angeles. This summer Mr. Worley was manager of the P. E. club at Big Bear and is assistant manager of the P. E. club at Los Angeles this winter.

The Red Cross had a stand in front of the Garden Grove meat market, Saturday, to get subscriptions and members for the Red Cross. The girls in charge did exceedingly well. The membership drive will last until Nov. 25.

Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Kinney and little Elenore Baldwin, of Los Angeles, spent Sunday with Mrs. Baldwin's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Price.

Mrs. Inez Lehman, Mrs. Bessie Boring and Mrs. Ellen Roberts, all of Los Angeles, visited Mrs. Belle Northcross, Sunday afternoon. The ladies were all old residents of Orange and Mrs. Northcross had not seen them for nearly fifteen years.

Mr. and Mrs. Cline Mitchell of Los Angeles visited the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Mitchell, over Saturday and Sunday.

Frank Thompson and family spent Sunday at the Orange County Park. Lemmie Conkle of El Toro was a visitor in Garden Grove, Sunday.

Mrs. Mary Nearing of Long Beach spent Sunday with her mother, Mrs. Shavey, in the Price apartments.

Milo Harris and family of Long Beach visited Sunday at the G. L. Crane home.

Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Preston of Downey spent Sunday with the Bert Hayes family.

Mr. and Mrs. Jay Fry and Dr. Frances Marshall and son, Harley, accompanied by their guests, Mr. and Mrs. L. Peterie and Mr. and Mrs.

BIG CENTER MEETING HELD AT BUENA PARK

BUENA PARK, Nov. 17.—About 85 members of the Buena Park Farm Center were present Monday night at one of the biggest meetings ever held by the center.

Mr. and Mrs. James Smiley gave a very interesting lecture on agriculture in Hawaii. Several musical numbers were rendered by the Farm Bureau quartette.

In the business meeting Farm Bureau dues for 1921 were discussed. The center unanimously approved the action of the Farm Bureau directors in raising the dues to $5.00 a year in order that the Bureau might have sufficient funds to carry on proposed work.

A report was heard from Dr. J. R. Schofield, secretary of the County Farm Bureau. The meeting closed with a social period during which refreshments were served by the ladies.

RECENT WEDDING OF SPECIAL INTEREST

WINTERSBURG-SMELTZER, Nov. 17.—A wedding of unusual interest to this community occurred at noon November 10, when Miss Beattie Draper, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Draper became the bride of John D. Shuts Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. John D. Shuts Sr., of Bolso.

The young people motored to Arlington and were married at the parsonage by Rev. Dundas, former pastor of the Wintersburg M. E. church.

After luncheon at the parsonage they motored to San Diego for a brief honeymoon.

On Thursday evening, they were honor guests at a family dinner given by Mr. and Mrs. John Shuts Sr. They are residing on the Earl Gardner ranch one mile south of Bolso. The community wishes them much happiness.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Moore and family drove to Long Beach Sunday afternoon.

Rev. and Mrs. Wilmarth and family were Sunday dinner guests at the C. C. Bonebrake home.

Armistice Day was a vacation for both Oceanview and Sprinfield schools. The latter was closed on Friday as well, while workmen were repairing the furnace.

R. L. Draper has purchased a Holt tractor. The initial test was made on Thursday.

Great interest is manifest in this section in the recent oil developments, particularly since the Standard Oil company brought in Bolso, Calif. No. 1.

Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Moore returned Saturday, after an absence of ten days on a motor trip, to Berkeley Island, Davis, Sacramento and other points. They report a pleasant trip.

Mr. and Mrs. B. M. Fox entertained at dinner on Sunday, Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Daniels and sons, Vernon and Kenneth, of Pomona.

On Sunday afternoon Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Huff and daughter Ruth, and Mr. and Mrs. Cunningham, all of Los Angeles, visited at the Fox home.

Mrs. M. E. Clemens and Miss Lila and Ruben Clemens visited Mr. and Mrs. Gans and family at Fullerton, Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Graham of Puente are visiting at the J. J. Graham home.

Garfield Allen and daughter, Lucille, accompanied by Miss Chassee Hammonree attended the State Sunday School convention at Pomona, Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Crouch went to Newhall Friday, returning Sunday. They will move there about December 1 and Mr. Crouch will be employed in the lumber yards.

J. O. Arkley returned Monday, from a week's business trip to Tulare County.

Mrs. Roy Manly and two daughters and son of Long Beach visited Mrs. Edward Dozier, Thursday. Mrs. Manly and Mrs. Dozier were girlhood chums at Long Beach.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Harvey and daughter, Frances, of Long Beach visited at the J. A. Bodenheimer home Sunday. The Harvey family just returned from a trip to India where they visited the old Bodenheimer home and brought back some fruit from the home place.

Charles Simmons, who has been sick for the past week, is reported to be still critically ill and confined to his bed.

Cranston Tyler made a business trip to Los Angeles, Sunday.

MIDWAY COMPANY TO USE ELECTRIC OUTFIT

LA HABRA, Nov. 17.—The board of directors of the La Habra Midway Oil company at their last meeting definitely decided to use electric equipment for drilling the company's well No. 1.

After gathering data from all parts of the field and comparing figures and considering the opinions of many of the best oil men, the board has concluded that this is the best and most economical way to proceed.

It was also decided to use cable tools instead of the rotary, believing that this will save the company many thousands of dollars. The directors believe that operations will be started soon enough to make up for a few days longer time that it might take to drill the well. However, most of the men familiar with the territory believe comparatively easy drilling formation will be encountered, and many of the best drillers say that with reasonable good luck a water string should be set in not to exceed 60 to 90 days drilling.

At this meeting two well known Whittier business men were added to the board of directors, E. E. Frantz and Wm. Espolt. This addition of two men so widely known certainly adds strength to the organization.

The company has the first rig nearly completed and arrangements are being made for equipment.

PAULARINO

PAULARINO, Nov. 17.—Mrs. Ford, Willie McGowan and Lucille, Mary and Louise Ford spent Sunday in Pomona.

Mr. and Mrs. Flint and children spent Sunday at Long Beach.

Mr. and Mrs. Jameson spent Sunday in Santa Ana.

La Mont Grose, of Lebanon, Oregon, is visiting at the home of G. E. Bogart.

Mrs. Nellie Reeves is having Mr. Bogart cut down the trees where she intends to build her house.

Mr. and Mrs. Flint and sons, Leonard and Forest, spent Monday in Los Angeles.

Mr. and Mrs. Arnet and daughter spent Sunday at Newport Beach.

Mr. and Mrs. Christian spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Chilcoat and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Emerson spent Sunday at Long Beach.

Misses Hazel Flint, Erma Shiffer, Marie Wells, Mrs. Shiffer and Messrs. Wesley Shiffer and Theodore Baker attended the Teachers Training class at Rev. J. J. Woodson's at Talbert.

Mr. Lembo is plowing for Mr. Hughes with his tractor.

Miss Grace Strunk spent Sunday with Violet and Mabel Johnson in Fullerton.

Wesley Shiffer is suffering from an injury to his leg which was caused when a harrow fell on his leg.

Miss Alice De Bow and Wesley Shiffer spent Sunday evening in Santa Ana.

Mr. Gray, the presiding elder, will hold the first quarterly conference at Greenville church next Sunday.

Everyone is invited out to the Greenville church to hear the new minister, Rev. J. J. Woodson.

The pupils of Costa Mesa and the pupils of Paularino held a ball game Friday afternoon on the Paularino school grounds. The score was Costa 18, Paularino 13.

Mr. and Mrs. Emerson spent Armistice Day at Anaheim.

Miss Dorothy Douglas spent the week-end with her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Chilcoat.

Minnie Douglas spent Friday with Mrs. Lasbe of Orange. Later they visited the carnival at Anaheim.

WOMAN WINS DIVORCE AND $100,000 CASH

AURORA, Ill., Nov. 17.—Ilda Piza, beautiful Costa Rican bride of Herbert P. Crane, millionaire Chicago and New York clubman, was granted absolute divorce in the Geneva county court here. A few hours earlier she had settled a separate maintenance suit against Crane for $100,000.

The decree gave her the custody of their two-year-old son, Raphael, and also directed that Mr. Crane pay $10,000 in fees to her lawyers.

Mrs. Crane, it was understood, did not seek a divorce. She consented, however, after Crane had insisted upon it in his agreement of settlement of the separate maintenance suit.

Under the divorce decree Mrs. Crane will resume her maiden name—Ilda Piza.

DANDERINE

Stops Hair Coming Out; Thickens, Beautifies.

A few cents buys "Danderine." After a few applications you cannot find a fallen hair or any dandruff, besides every hair shows new life, vigor, brightness, more color and abundance.—Adv.

NIGHT CLASSES PENDING DEMAND FOR COURSES

ORANGE, Nov. 17.—Plans for opening a night school at Orange Union high school are being developed under authority given by the high school board at its last meeting.

The opening of the school will depend upon the demand for courses. Any course, including shop and commercial courses, will be instituted if there are a sufficient number of applicants.

Registration for night school courses will be opened at the high school Thursday and Friday evening between 7:30 and 9 o'clock. Opening of the school will be announced as soon after registration is complete as possible. The opening, it is stated, is conditioned upon there being enough demand for courses to justify it.

INCORPORATION OF PLACENTIA PLANNED

PLACENTIA, Nov. 17.—At an informal meeting of the Placentia Business Men's Association it was decided to go right ahead with the incorporation of Placentia. Committees will be appointed to take up different phases of the work and keep it moving.

The demand for incorporation is becoming insistent, and it is now coming not only from the people of the town itself but from the ranchers. The present proposition is to include the whole Placentia school district in the incorporation. This will not only protect the district from further carving such as it experienced last year, when it lost two millions of property to Fullerton, but it will reduce the possibility of being gerrymandered into another supervisory district.

Several of the citizens of Commonwealth would like to have their school district included. They now form a joint district with Placentia, and this action would make them actually a part of the district.

HANSEN STATION

HANSEN STATION, Nov. 17.—Mrs. Adams and daughter, of West Virginia, old time friends of Homer Eddy, were dinner guests at the Eddy home, Sunday.

Mrs. Geo. Peters is recovering from a stubborn attack of bronchitis. Al Kemp is having his piped later. He is getting ready for the next crop.

Mr. and Mrs. H. T. Hathaway, of Anaheim, motored to the Eddy ranch Friday evening.

Mrs. Morgan Jones is helping out in the Fullerton Realty company's office this week.

The Ladies Community club meets with Mrs. Geo. Treffer, Thursday afternoon.

Merrill Hunt and wife, of Cypress, viewed the parade in Anaheim, on Thursday.

Mr. Geo. Peters and Mrs. H. H. Hammond were Anaheim visitors, Saturday.

Mrs. Al Kemp and Mrs. Beams viewed the Armistice parade, in Anaheim Wednesday.

TREE REPAIR WORK BULLETIN OFFERED

At present tree-repair work has not received the recognition and approval from tree owners that it deserves. This may be due at times to unfavorable experiences with dishonest or ignorant tree surgeons, at other times to the reluctance of the owners to spend money in preserving their trees, or from their ignorance of the benefits that may result when the tree-repair work is properly done.

Educating the Public

Reliable tree surgeons are doing much in a practical way to educate the public as to the benefits of tree-repair work. A few states have laws regulating tree-repair work on a commercial basis.

The United States Department of Agriculture invites correspondence concerning methods of tree-repair work and is prepared to advise for or against any particular method so far as experience and the results of experiments permit. Farmers' Bulletin 1178 on tree surgery will be sent free on application.

Tree owners are urged to remember that the necessity for tree-repair work 15 or 20 years hence may be reduced materially by promptly attending to the fresh injuries of today.

Most persons can, at least with a very little preliminary practice on the simpler types of work, undertake ordinary tree surgery provided they are familiar with the use of a gouge and mallet, a saw and a paint brush. A steady hand and ability to climb will be necessary for work in the top of the tree.

Replace Worthless Ones

A badly diseased or injured tree should be removed and replaced by a healthy one unless there is some very special reason for trying to preserve the tree.

Two axioms of tree-repair work that should be borne in mind constantly are: That prompt treatment of freshly made wounds is the surest and most economical method of preventing disease and decay in the future, and that all wounds made in tree surgery should be cleaned, sterilized and protected from infection just as thoroughly as in animal surgery, and for the same reasons.

SIX-CENT CAR FARE

CLEVELAND, O., Nov. 17.—Six-cent street car fare or nine tickets for 50 cents and a 1-cent charge of transfers went into effect here.

HONOR DAUGHTER AT ANNIVERSARY PARTY

VILLA PARK, Nov. 17.—Mrs. Harold Shadowen entertained on Saturday afternoon in honor of her daughter, Thelma's eighth birthday anniversary. Pink and white decorations were used in the dining room where refreshments were served to the little guests. The centerpiece was a beautiful white cake with 8 pink candles. Orange ice and banana cake and pop corn and peanuts were served, after the children had spent a happy time playing games. Those present were Frances Ann Rasch, Gwendolyn Holditch, Allison McCallum, Frances Barnett, Gladys Shadowen and Thelma, Elton, Dorothy and Milford Shadowen.

Mrs. Frank Ford received a crate of Emperor grapes on Saturday from her brother in Fresno county.

Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Leichtfuss accompanied by Misses Anna Uecker and Amanda Pracknow and Ray Uecker and Jack Phifer left Friday morning for Porterville, where they will stay during the navel orange season. Mr. and Mrs. Leichtfuss will return in a few days.

Mr. and Mrs. L. O. Hanselman and baby spent the week-end in Compton with relatives.

Chauncey Squires and his friend Harold Mulholland, who was with him in the border service, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Lord, Saturday evening and Sunday. Sunday afternoon George Ford, Harold Mulholland and Chauncey Squires took a trip up Silverado canyon before the boys returned to Culver City.

Miss Josephine Jones of Los Angeles spent the week-end with her brother and his wife, Mr. and Mrs. L. R. Jones.

Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Knuth were week-end guests of Miss L. Stanley in Pasadena. Their little daughters, Margaret and Barbara, stayed with their grandmother, Mrs. Ellen Holditch.

Ralph Sussdorf spent Sunday in Long Beach, where Mrs. Sussdorf is visiting with friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Warren were the guests of friends at San Juan Capistrano, Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Rasch, son Jack, and daughter, Frances Ann and Carl Rasch were visitors in Pomona, Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. H. D. Nichols and children and Miss Sue Collins and Mrs. Balazs were visitors in Capistrano, Sunday with the families of J. R. Smith and Guy Williams.

Mrs. E. N. H. Conger, who has been quite ill for the past two weeks, is able to sit up for a little while each day.

Bronson Holditch, Charles Reich and J. B. Handy left on Monday morning about 2 a. m., for Owens Lake on a duck hunting trip. They expect to be gone about a week.

Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Leichtfuss and son, Lawrence, witnessed the Armistice Day parade at Anaheim.

Miss Margaret Holditch spent Thursday evening and Friday at Anaheim with her sister.

Tom Grewell and his sister, Mrs. Claude Wheeler, were visitors in Anaheim on Thursday to see the Armistice Day parade.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Cofelt were in Anaheim on Thursday evening at the American Legion carnival.

Miss Margaret Cummings and John Cummings were guests at a birthday dinner for Miss Marjorie Thomson on Tuesday evening at the H. T. Thomson home. After dinner they had a theater party and all spent a most enjoyable evening.

The P. T. A. met at the school house on Friday afternoon with a very good attendance. Prof. Sherwood of Orange gave a very interesting address on "Measuring Intelligence." There was also a short business session.

Little Mildred Gillogly was quite ill Friday night and Saturday she had an attack of her old trouble, bronchitis.

MACHINE GUNS GUARD MURDER TRIAL COURT

HOT SPRINGS, Ark., Nov. 17.—A detachment of machine gunners arrived here and deployed about the court house as the trial of Tom Slaughter and Fulton Green, alleged members of a bandit gang charged with the murder of Deputy Sheriff Brown, opened. The court requested these troops because of fear that efforts would be made by other members of the gang to rescue the pair.

AVALANCHE KILLS PASADENA STUDENT

PASADENA, Nov. 17.—Vernon Awey, student at Pasadena university, died here as the result of injuries suffered when a small avalanche crushed him while on a picnic in the Sierra Madre mountains a few miles away from this city.

ASPIRIN

Name "Bayer" on Genuine

It's criminal to take a chance on any substitute for "Bayer Tablets of Aspirin." Unless you see the name "Bayer" on package or on tablets you are not getting genuine Aspirin prescribed by physicians for twenty-one years and proved safe by millions. Take Aspirin only as told in the Bayer package for Colds, Headache, Neuralgia, Rheumatism, Earache, Toothache, Lumbago and for Pain. Handy tin boxes of twelve tablets cost only 25 cents. Aspirin is the trade mark of Bayer or Manufacture of Monocetacid-ester of Salicylicacid.

A MAN OF RENOWN

Among the notable professional men of this country who achieved great success along strictly legitimate lines, was Dr. R. V. Pierce, founder of Invalids' Hotel and Surgical Institute in Buffalo, N. Y. Devoting his attention to the specialty of women's diseases, he became a recognized authority in that line. His work, "The Common Sense Medical Adviser," is now in over two and a half million homes in this country and Europe. At one time Doctor Pierce represented his home district in Congress.

Just fifty-one years ago he gave to the world a Prescription which has never been equaled for the weaknesses of women. Many women in every hamlet, town or city will gladly testify that Doctor Pierce's Favorite Prescription did them a world of good.

Another of this great physician's successful remedies is known as Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery and, like the "Prescription," is now sold by all druggists, in both liquid and tablet form. This is probably one of the most efficacious discoveries ever made in medicine, for the list of men and women all over the universe who have successfully used it for indigestion and as a blood tonic and system builder, makes an amazing total of thousands.

"Pleasant Pellets" for stomach, liver and bowels, introduced by Dr. Pierce fifty years ago, are recommended by thousands all over the United States and Canada.

A new edition of the "Medical Adviser," over 1,000 pages, bound in handsome cloth, can be obtained by sending one dollar (or one-cent postage stamps) to Dr. Pierce's Invalids' Hotel, Buffalo, N. Y.

SALES THROUGH CO-OPERATION INCREASING

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 17.—More than half the farmers in California sell their products through co-operative marketing associations, and raisers of cattle and sheep, vegetable growers and apple orchardists are the only kind of agricultural producers in the state who have not combined to insure themselves a living return for their output, according to statistics being gathered by attorneys for some of these organizations.

There are about twenty-five active associations, these figures show, which control as high as 90 per cent of their particular crop in some cases, and which range in activity from mere sales agencies to organizations that pack, distribute and advertise their products and even possess lumber mills to make their own box shooks.

Hog raisers have no association of their own, but a marketing association of the farm bureau of seven counties in the San Joaquin valley sold $144,749 worth of hogs last year for the farm bureau members.

Americans, Japanese Unite
The growers of annual crops such as vegetables who can turn their land to other uses without loss or delay, are about the only ones who have not been successful in forming organizations, the statistics indicate, although bean and lima bean growers have been able to support marketing associations. Potato and tomato growers associations do not exist, although berry growers are organized and in central California have accomplished the feat of combining American and Japanese farmers in one concern.

The California Fruit Growers' Exchange, which marketed $50,000,000 of citrus fruits last year from the orchards of 11,000 members, handling 70 per cent of the California orange and lemon crop, is the patriarch of the association. It not only sells the fruit but marmalade and fruit juices as well and through a subsidiary concern secures box shooks and other packing materials.

Among the other associations, with the number of members their volume of business last year and the proportion of the total crop they controlled are: California Associated Raisin Company, 10,000 members, $33,000,000, 85 per cent; California Prune and Apricot Growers, Inc., 10,800 members, $22,000,000, 80 per cent; California Peach Growers, Inc., 7,000 members, $10,000,000 to $12,000,000, 75 per cent; California Almond Growers Exchange, 3,578 members, $5,000,000, 80 per cent.

The Central California Poultry Producers, Inc., who sold nine million dozen eggs last year claim to be the largest single concern in the United States handling poultry products and the second largest in the world, being surpassed only by a Danish co-operative concern.

Large Sums for Publicity
Many of our organizations spend large amounts in advertising. The raisin company spent $450,000 last year, the prune and apricot growers $500,000, the walnut association $180,000, while 22 per cent of the annual citrus crop return is devoted to advertising and one per cent a pound of the almond exchange receipts go for the same purpose.

The value of vineyards, according to the statement of the raisin company, has increased from $300 an acre in 1912 to $1,000 in 1920. The prune growers point to an advance from $500 to $750 an acre for orchards in 1917 to the 1920 price of from $2,000 to $4,000 an acre. Other associations make similar claims.

POISON GAS SUCCEEDS IN PEACH BORER FIGHT

The results of what is known as the para-dichlorobenzene treatment for the eradication of the peach-tree borer lead experts of the United States Department of Agriculture to believe that a practical means has finally been found of riding orchards of this disastrously destructive pest. Previously the only effective method of fighting the borer was by removing the soil around the base of the tree and digging the grubs out of their galleries with a knife. It is estimated that the borers have done $6,000,000 damage a year and that $2,000,000 a year has been spent in fighting them.

The para-dichlorobenzene method was first used extensively by orchardists in 1919. It consists in sprinkling fine crystals of the insecticide on the soil around the base of the infected tree and covering with earth to hold the gas. The substance is highly volatile and forms a gas when the soil is between 74 and 80 degrees F. This gas is five times heavier than air and sinks down through the soil. It is highly effective against the borer; and a pound of the insecticide, costing not more than 25 cents, is sufficient for 8 or 10 trees. The labor is scarcely one-third of that formerly required. The saving therefore is great.

This year the para-dichlorobenzene process has been used extensively in the Georgia peach belt, some localities buying as high as 50,000 pounds and large individual growers as high as 2 tons each. Growers declare that it is one of the greatest accomplishments in the history of the department, comparable to the self-boiled lime-sulphur treatment for control of brown rot and scab of the peach.

CO-OPERATIVE MARKET URGED FOR APRICOTS

SAN JOSE, Nov. 17.—James U. Porter, secretary of the Fruit Growers of California, Inc., has announced that an active drive to secure 75 per cent of the apricot acreage of the Santa Clara valley will be started immediately. Porter states that at the Fruit Growers' convention held in Fresno it was the consensus of opinion among the speakers that the need for farmers' and growers' co-operative marketing organizations is more urgent now than ever before. State Market Director G. B. Daniels has consented to come to Santa Clara county, and will address a meeting of growers to be held here on the evening of November 23. The place for this meeting will be selected later.

MEDICAL OFFICERS GATHER AT REUNION

FRESNO, Nov. 17.—Meeting many of them for the first time since they doffed their uniforms to resume civil practice, army medical officers to the number of forty, who were attached to Camp Kearny at San Diego during the war, held their first reunion with a banquet here at the Fresno hotel last night. Officers were elected, and while no constitution was adopted or name selected, a committee was appointed to adopt by-laws and decision reached to make the reunion annual meeting at the same time as the State Medical association. Officers elected at the meeting last night were: Dr. Frank Tillman of Fresno, commander; Dr. James Guilford of San Francisco, adjutant, and Rev. Father F. J. Keating of Fresno, chaplain. Former medical officers were present from many parts of California.

In a Bad Way
I'm telling you the truth when I say that I was much happier when I was poor.
"Then why don't you let your millions go and be poor again?"
"That would be of no use. I'd still feel miserable thinking of those poor fellows cursed with money."—Boston Transcript.

THINK ITALIANS WILL REPLACE JAPANESE

PASADENA, Nov. 17.—The conference proposed to be held at the Pasadena Chamber of Commerce of all the commercial bodies in Southern California to consider the question of obtaining truck gardeners to take the place of the Japanese when their leases expire is being delayed pending receipt of additional information. A. Burlingame Johnson is behind the movement to hold the conference here and it is understood that when the conference is called Pasadena will be named as the place of meeting.

However, it is declared that California need not fear any famine of vegetables, berries or fruits for lack of gardeners. For many months the Los Angeles Chamber of Commerce, through its agricultural department, has been negotiating for immigration to the state to take up the lands the moment the Japanese quit. Dr. Clemente, the head of the department, has the entire scheme in hand and it is stated that his negotiations with agents of colonists of gardeners from Southern Italy have reached the point where the Italians stand ready to come to California the moment the Japanese leave.

The negotiations were originally started to bring these farm and truck garden workers here some years ago. A representative came to California and made a thorough survey of the prospects and declined to send his people here to compete with Orientals. However, the negotiations were not dropped and have been kept alive and now are at the stage where with the removal of Japanese competition these agricultural workers will move in, lease the land and carry on the raising of vegetables, berries and small fruits without a break in the volume of production.

Thus any menace that might have existed by reason of the departure of Japanese is said to have been removed and all that is needed is to flash the date the workers are wanted and they will be forthcoming, it is declared.

FRESNOANS CONSIDER PURCHASE OF CANAL

FRESNO, Nov. 17.—Representatives of all the civic organizations, including the Fresno Chamber of Commerce, the different farm bureaus in the Fresno irrigation district and Farm Adviser J. P. Benson, attended a meeting at the Chamber of Commerce to discuss the offer of the Fresno Canal and Land Corporation to sell its system to the irrigation district for $1,750,000. At the close of the meeting, upon the motion of Wylie M. Griffin, president of the California Associated Raisin Company, it was agreed that in their opinion the bond issue should be carried and that it was of vital importance to the people of this district to carry the election. The purpose of the meeting was to explain the plans of the Fresno irrigation district and to get the views of the representatives of the different organizations.

NEW PLANT PREPARED FOR ORANGE PACK

TERRA BELLA, Nov. 17.—The new packing-house of the Grand View Heights Citrus Association is ready for its first run of naval oranges. Thousands of field boxes have been prepared and the fruit will be packed under the "Ultra" and "Grand View" brands. Carl L. Young, manager of both houses, is confident of material increase in output. Indications point to a heavy crop, and picking may begin any day.

MILLS COLLEGE HEAD TO GIVE ADDRESSES

SAN DIEGO, Nov. 17.—Dr. Aurelia Henry Reinhardt, president of Mills college, will deliver an address in San Diego soon, according to an announcement made yesterday. While in Southern California Dr. Reinhardt will also speak in Los Angeles, Riverside and Ventura. In Ventura county she will be the speaker of the convention of county teachers, lecturing at Santa Paula, Ojai, Oxnard, Moorpark, Fillmore and Ventura.

President Reinhardt will return to the campus in time to greet the Mills alumnae at their general council meeting to be held at Hotel Oakland, Nov. 27. Representatives from the branch associations will be present. There will also be an important conference of class secretaries. At this time detailed plans for the Ethel Moore memorial will be laid before the association.

While in San Diego Dr. Reinhardt will be the guest of Mrs. John G. Clark, chairman of the Mills' endowment work in this city.

B. B. PLAYERS TO SEEK HIGHER WAGES

NEW YORK, Nov. 17.—Now that peace smiles sweetly over baseball and there's nothing left to fight over, what'll the magnates do this winter? Those of a belligerent turn of mind most likely will have plenty of quarreling grounds when they go to talk terms with their players.

Ball players never admitted that they were getting too much money for their services and since the clean-up made by moguls last season they will probably insist louder than ever on a change in their check faces.

It is estimated that the sixteen major league clubs made close to $3,000,000 last season. Close to $3,000,000 was made by the New York, Chicago and Boston American league clubs. The New York Giants took in close to a million and the Brooklyn champions made about $600,000. The Cleveland Indians come mighty close to the same mark. No club lost money. Even the Athletics made a little money, due to the Yankees, the White Sox and the stronger clubs of the league who drew well in Quaker-town. The Washington senators, for the first time in years, made a little money.

The players know that and it's dead sure they'll want a larger cut of the profits.

An unusual number of players are to sign new contracts this winter.

GIVES BLOOD THREE TIMES FOR MOTHER

NEW YORK, Nov. 17.—For the third time within eight months, John Finkbeiner, 27, a wealthy real estate operator of the Bronx, has given his blood by transfusion, to prolong the life of his mother, Mrs. Margaret Finkbeiner. The third offering was made at the Finkbeiner home recently, and in the opinion of physicians was successful.

"I've only done what any son would do," said Finkbeiner.

"His heroic offering," said a friend, "has meant another year of life for his mother. Eight months ago the doctors decided her only salvation lay in blood transfusion. The physicians wanted to advertise for a volunteer, but John would have none of it. He insisted his own blood be used. The doctors were quick to consent and his mother's objections were finally overcome."

"The first operation was successful and Mrs. Finkbeiner thrived for nearly five months. Then another operation was necessary and John insisted that he make the sacrifice. Now he has made the third effort. It is pathetic that such an offering cannot do more than prolong Mrs. Finkbeiner's life a few months. That is the opinion of the doctors. But John insists he will continue the offerings even if it will keep his mother alive but a day."

EXPIRED FARM LAND LEASE

IMPROVED IMPERIAL VALLEY LAND

Only $150 to $225 an Acre
(Including Water Stock)

Pasturing Alfalfa in Winter in Imperial Valley
Typical Stand of Milo-Maze
Part of Imperial Valley's Wonderful Water System.

Our lease to Balfour-Guthrie & Company on several thousand acres of choice, general-farming land, has expired. This fact enables you to buy improved land, cultivated and enriched for five years, fully water-stocked and ready for immediate production of big, profitable crops. We offer this selected acreage on very easy terms at the remarkably low prices quoted above.

Enormous Returns Assured in This Proven District

Our land is in the wonderful Calipatria-Niland district of Imperial Valley, where so many farmers are accumulating quick wealth. The Imperial Valley farmer challenges the world to equal his tremendous annual return upon a moderate investment. Soil, water and sunshine combine to produce gigantic yields throughout a year-round growing season. Estimated value of Imperial Valley's 1920 products, over $65,000,000.

Imperial Valley Is an "Agricultural Wonderland"

In this Valley of Miracles, alfalfa produces 7 to 9 cuttings annually and also affords winter pasture. The finest long-staple cotton is grown. Two crops are produced on the same land in one year—15 to 30 sacks of barley and a ton of milo-maze per acre. The earliest table grapes; luscious grapefruit; millions of dollars' worth of winter vegetables and cantaloupes come from Imperial Valley. The soil is fertilized by silt deposits with every irrigation.

Many of our farmers have produced enough crops in one year to pay the entire cost of their land.
